THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

Today, Palm Sunday we begin the holiest week of the year. This year we will read the Passion account from the gospel of St. Luke. This particular account follows the merciful and compassionate tenor of all of Luke's gospel. It is there we read the parables of the Good Samaritan, The Prodigal Son. The mercy is reflected singularly in the words of Jesus, "Forgive them Father they know not what they do", and the story of the repentant thief to whom Jesus says, this very day you will be with me in the Kingdom. As we walk through Holy Week and especially the Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil the story of the Passion and Death of Jesus are recounted in great detail and considered over three days, so we might enter into the saving action of the Lord as his holy Church. We encourage everyone to do your best to be present to celebrate the sacred feasts. The Easter Vigil recounts all of Salvation History in its readings and there we will welcome our Catechumens and the other members of the RCIA program into full participation in the sacramental life of the Church.

This past Wednesday, we gathered for the annual penance service to prepare for the Pascal feasts. On Saturday, we gathered for the annual parish retreat to consider recommitment to Gospel Stewardship which is the hallmark of our parish mission: "Living and Proclaiming the Gospel through Stewardship, welcoming all." Recently our parish stewardship Ministries Committee and Finance Committees met to consider ways that we can revitalize our commitments to Gospel Stewardship in this 100th year as a parish. It is only in the Stewardship of our lives, in spending our time talent and resources for the glory of God through the life of the parish that we will be able to flourish into the next 100 years.

We are confident that the steps we take in the coming year to revitalize the parish community and grow in fellowship with the Lord and one another will bear great fruit in the life of the parish. We are poised to develop steps that will enhance our Stewardship weekend for next September, so that next year will bring new beginnings and deeper involvement in the life of the parish for all of our ministries and organizations. Thank you for all that you are and all that you do to make St. Joan of Arc a vibrant and generous parish. May the Holy Spirit inspire our Easter Season to bring even greater vitality into our community.

*In the love and joy of Christ Jesus

An Apology from the Parish office

In last week's bulletin Fr. Dan thanked two generous parishioners who paid for the new president's chair. The two names should have been Len Sylvester and Mary Kulyski. My apologies to Mary, for omitting her name. Rosanne

Living the Gospel by supporting vocations

Martin Dicuango had a life-changing encounter when he visited Serra House, a residence run by St. Augustine's Seminary for those discerning a priestly vocation. He is now a third-year theology student at St. Augustine's. "I thank ShareLife for supporting St. Augustine's Seminary," says Martin, "where young men like myself, after experiencing the love of Christ, are joyfully preparing for ordination to the priesthood." May 5 is ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously.
