THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

This evening I am at Graymoor here in Garrison NY, the motherhouse of the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement. I stopped here on the way to New York City which is about 50 miles down south on the Hudson River from here. It was good to see the friars and to pray and visit with them. The friars all complimented us on the Parish yearbook which was on the coffee table for them all to see. They were quite impressed with all the activities we're engaged with. Fr. John said hello to all, as did other of the friars who have been to St. Joan of Arc for various occasions.

Tomorrow, after a bike ride here in the Hudson Highlands, I will drive to the NY City Friary to stay there near the registration site of the Ironman race. Registration is on Wednesday, and then I will be able to get my bearings for the event. Thursday is a pre-race dinner and meeting for the athletes to prepare us for the event and go over all the rules etc. Then Friday we will bring our bicycles and running gear to the transition site because the departure on ferry boats to the swim start will be at 4 AM. This will place all of the contestants in good order to begin the race at 7 AM. I hope to finish around 10 PM, which is my usual time for these events. For those of you attending 5:30 Mass, please pray for my perseverance and success. Those of you who attend Sunday Masses, may be able to hear how I have done from someone who followed the race on the internet. Thank you all for your prayerful support in this endeavor, I will see you next week hopefully with a finisher's medal around my neck.

A big Thank You goes to Fr. Pat Cogan, SA, who is taking care of the parish in my absence. And also to Rosanne and Rose and all who are supporting Fr. Pat with the details involved. No doubt everyone is delighted to see Fr. Pat with us again, he served the parish as a regular Sunday celebrant for many years. Once again thank you everyone for your prayers and support, Be sure of my prayers for all of you.

In the love and Joy of Christ Jesus,

Fr. Dan

Please pray for:
