THE FRIAR'S NOOK

I know we're just beginning the month of February, but this month ends with the beginning of the season of Lent. Lent is usually a time where people give up something they love. I know throughout my entire childhood we always had to give up something that we held dear (for me it was usually chocolate!) But Lent isn't always about giving up - we give up things so that we have more time and space for things of God.

Sometimes we miss the entire point of Lent completely. I know somebody who each year adds to her list of things that she's going to give up. Last year she was worried about what she could find to add to the list. I suggested that rather than giving up one more thing, that she try to be more patient and kind to her boyfriend (manfriend really since he's in his 80s!) She said "That would be hard"! I told her that being Christian in your attitude and actions are often hard but we are still called to do it. I had a friend nearby who told me that she tried to keep her temper and watch what she said. I don't know if she came out any holier at the end of Lent, but I know her friend certainly enjoyed the break.

The reason I'm speaking of Lent so early is because at St. Joan of Arc we are offering a wide variety of things to do during Lent. We start off the night before Lent with a pancake supper sponsored by our confirmation class. It's a great time to get together with other parishioners and families. And the food is good too. It also, is a good chance to meet the members of our confirmation class, if you don't know any of the youth in the parish, and to encourage them with their studies and doing good. After Ash Wednesday, we have Stations of the Cross on Fridays, we have a Lenten soup supper we have a half day Lenten retreat we have workshops by our Creation Care ministry among other things.

So, keep looking in the bulletin for upcoming events this Lent that you may do just one thing for God. And as you know we are always looking for more liturgical ministers - ushers and greeters, lectors and eucharistic ministers, servers and sacristans. I ask you to take some time in prayer and see if God isn't calling you to participate in some ministry to serve the church. Lent is a great time to open our ears and our hearts and joining I'm in history is a great way to meet dedicated parishioners who walk with each other on the journey in Christ.

Watch the bulletin and listen to the announcements for the upcoming events.

Peace, love and joy,
Fr. Bob

Please Pray for:

The Sick:: Stanley, Len Sylvester and Angela Sbrocchi
The Deceased: Katie Bonafede, Janina Saweczko and Maria Campo

Message from the Office

Please be advised that all the 2019 offertory boxes numbers that were not collected have been deleted from the computer and we can not record your offering if it is in a 2019 envelope. Do not tape your envelopes shut. They are sticking to the ones on top and get missed for recording. We would appreciate if you would kindly put your information on the outside of the envelope. We are having trouble recording some donations. Would the person using envelope #56 please fill in the information, so we can record your donations.

Merrymakers Mass & Lunch

The February Merrymakers has been moved to Tuesday, February 18th. Please call the office to RSVP a place by 4:00 pm Thursday, February 13th. You must reserve a place, so that there is enough food for everyone.

Message from the Archdiocese-Public Relations Office

“At this time, the risk to our community remains low. I want to remind residents that the best way to prevent infection is to avoid being exposed to this virus with prevention measures including washing your hands frequently, covering your cough or sneeze and staying home if you are ill. I also understand that members of the public may have questions and once again, I encourage you to visit credible, evidence-based sources to get the facts. We are updating our website regularly as new information is available to help keep you informed. For more information, please visit www.Toronto.ca/coronavirus.”
