THE FRIAR'S NOOK

Peace and Goodness to all!

Happy New Year! It's an exciting time for the parish of St. Joan of Arc - or at least for me. On Sunday January 19th, Bishop Bob Kasun will be here for the 10:00 o'clock mass to install me as pastor. A friend of mine said, "Installing you - it sounds like they're going to nail you to the wall!" When Bishop Kasun (or Bishop Bob as he prefers) called me to set the date and time he asked how I was doing. I told him no one has "nailed me to the wall" yet! He thought that was a good sign.

I'm so glad that I had over a year to get to know the people in the parish and that you have had a chance to get to know me. In fact, when I attended a diocesan meeting for new pastors, they were all jealous that I've been here for a year before becoming pastor where they get assigned and sent to a new parish and have to start cold. I'm really looking forward to being able to serve you the best I can. I know that I won't be able to please everyone, but I will do all that I can to make St. Joan of Arc parish continue to grow and continue to be a light for Toronto. To that end, I will need the help of each and every one of you.

This year with the help of the Stewardship Committee, we plan to kick off a new stewardship initiative. We will be asking each member of the congregation to commit to at least one small part of the parish. There are a wide variety of ministries here some involving more time than others but with everyone working together the work is light. Some people have been in the same roles and ministry for the longest time and we seek to alleviate that by bringing in fresh faces and voices. Every Sunday we see the same people minister over and over again. In a parish this size there should be plenty of people to rotate the ministries and certainly not having one person do multiple ministries! I always think that if you're coming to church anyway how difficult is it to take on a roll from greeter to usher (of which we are sorely lacking), from server, lector to Eucharistic minister. We need help and all of these areas. Both the choirs have solicited for new members and have gotten some but remember they are here to help YOU sing not to sing for you. There are also many other non-liturgical ministries for you to get involved with. I myself have been busy plastering, painting comma and cleaning!

I thank all of you for the food and the meals you have provided they are a sing of your love. I hope that you will be proud to be a member of St Joan of Arc parish

Peace, love and joy,
Fr. Bob

Please Pray for:

The Sick: Patricia McCullough, Teresa Petingo, and Al Almon

The Deceased: William Vant Erve
