THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

The readings this week lend themselves to the appreciation of hospitality as a way of serving the Lord. Abraham and Sarah serve the mysterious angels who come to visit and after enjoying the hospitality offered to them, they inform Abraham that Sarah will be with child in the following year when they return. Jesus enjoys the hospitality of Martha and Mary in the familiar gospel story where Martha asks Jesus to have her sister help with the duties. Jesus' response makes it known that Mary has chosen the better part in giving her attention to him. The summer months often give us time to be with friends or loved ones and perhaps new acquaintances in the places that we happen to experience in the times of leisure the summer may offer. The hospitality we offer or that is offered to us give opportunities to encounter the Lord in others, or perhaps for others to encounter the Lord in our lives. May the Holy Spirit be alive in all of us so we can appreciate the events of the summer as opportunities to be open to the presence of God in all of our engagements.

This week Vivian Kwok, and Cathi Richardson were together to prepare the ground for the religious education programs to begin in the middle of September. Please keep your eyes on the bulletin to see the dates of registration and programing that will be posted. Vivian has already been meeting with the teachers and with a great spirit of enthusiasm. It promises to be a very good year of new beginnings in this ministry.

Please notice the change to the St. Joan of Arc sign on the outside wall of the Church. In the green space the wording was changed to include our parish mission statement: Proclaiming and Living the Gospel through Stewardship, All are Welcome. This is the statement that the parish developed with the help of our ministries committee over the past four or five years through reflections made in a series of retreats.

In the past couple of weeks several couples have come to begin the process of marriage preparations to receive the sacrament next year. If you or a family member are planning on being married here at St. Joan of Arc, please have them call me or the parish office to schedule the initial meeting that will begin the process. Also if you or anyone you know is interested in becoming Catholic through adult baptism or reception into the Church please contact the office so we can begin forming the RCIA group for next year.

As the summer progresses, I hope you and your loved ones are making time to enjoy some rest and leisure to refresh you and help you enjoy the presence of the Lord in all you are and do.

May God bless you all in the Love and Joy of Christ!
Fr. Dan

Please Pray for:

Iron Friar

It is that time of year again! Fr. Dan is planning on participating in the Canadian Ironman Triathlon in Mont Tremblant, Quebec this year. As you can see by the Pastor's Corner this year's money will go towards the restoration of the men's washroom in the parish hall. Envelopes can be found at the entrances of the church and put in the collection baskets, or handed in to the parish office. Your contribution to this endeavour will be credited to your parish tax receipt.

Calgary Relief

As you heard in the announcements last week Cardinal Collins announced that our Archdiocese is accepting donations in support of the Diocese of Calgary. All money collected will be forwarded to Bishop Henry, who will give it to those most in need of our help. Please use the Yellow Humanitarian envelopes that you find at the entrances of the church and be sure to put your information on the outside and mark it Calgary, so you may get credit for your support. Thank you for supporting our Canadian neighbours in their time of need.
