The Pastor's Corner

Peace and Goodness to All!

Come to me all who labour and are heavy burdened and I will give you rest. These words from the gospel are proclaimed this Sunday as we enter the peek of summer with the leisure rest that characterize for many, the months of July and August. It is truly a blessing to have these months of a more relaxed schedule for man, so that we can enjoy the pleasures of family, friends and leisure activities that are so necessary to be refreshed in our lives and relationships. It is a great time for prayerful listening to the Lord whose love and mercy is always around us. In the busy times of life with its many obligations and distractions, it may be more difficult to just be still and know that God is with us.

Here in the parish our meeting schedules are reduced, although this Wednesday the staff will meet to set our calendar for the coming year, and some of the committees will meet intermittently to plan for the coming year, it will be at a more relaxed pace so we can contemplate more thoughtfully about ways to serve the parish and grow the mission of the Lord in our ministries.

This more relaxed time offers us all opportunities to be prayerfully open to God who love us and wants to be in relationship with us. This relationship is possible for us to appreciate if we are attentive to God's presence and the many gifts that are poured into our lives every day. When things are too hectic, it may be more difficult to be mindful of this truth. This summer let's all turn our attention to the love of God in every circumstance, so we can experience the gratitude that we celebrate every time we gather to celebrate in worship with a deeper appreciation for God, Our Father, and for one another as children of one family in Christ.

In the love and joy of Christ Jesus!

Fr. Dan

Please Pray for:
