The Friar's Nook

For those of you have been afraid of my beard, it's gone now. So, feel free to come to church I don't look so scary anymore. I can't tell you how nice it feels to feel the wind on your neck and feel cooler. Even in the winter the beard got in the way. Usually as I was zipping my coat up the beard would get caught on the zipper - not very comfortable!

As summer approaches we really notice, this is the time when things begin to slowdown. Our last bulletin for the summer will be the first Sunday in July. I will be on vacation in August as it's the only time I can fit it into my schedule with the meetings I have for the Friars General Council. I know a lot of you are away to the cottages or wherever. Hopefully we'll be able to have Mass live streamed through the entire season. Rosanne is working on getting priests for the Masses that I won't be here for, and I will be working on getting someone to run the live stream when I'm not here. Anyone interested? You do need to be a priest to celebrate Mass, but you don't need to be a priest to run the live stream, so we'll take volunteers either way.

We have been praying for my sister who was diagnosed with cancer last November and I will be seeing her next weekend. I thought by now that she would have had surgery but that hasn't happened. They're still running tests! But at least I'll have Sonya with me, and she loves being around Sonya so that should help ease her mind.

This week I'm giving her a treat to the tertiaries of the Friars of the Atonement. These are men, single, married, widowed, who wish to work in a more in-depth way with the Friars in their ministries. They make promises as opposed to vows and our numbers are growing. As their spiritual director I'm looking forward to being with them and hopefully after listening to me for a week they'll still look forward to being with me.

Then the following week, we will be back to General Council meetings. We had the month of May off although we did have to make a conference call to deal with some matters, but this hopefully will be our last meeting for the summer. This fall though, because of the COVID restrictions we'll be making up for lost time. In September, I have to go to Italy, in October I have to go to Japan, in December I have to go to Peru. I'm not looking forward to doing all this traveling bunched up like this but since we couldn't travel before, we have to get all this work done now. It will be wonderful to see the Friars and the ministries in these locations hopefully be a source of encouragement.

Now while I'm away, expect you to be on your best behavior! I don't want to hear from any visiting priests that you were causing trouble! Of course, that doesn't mean I'm hoping you save all your trouble for me just leave your troubles on the doorstep when you come in. I look forward to seeing more and more of you as we make our way through this pandemic, but I realize, even though I got rid of my beard, that COVID is still out there, and I still know people who are coming down with it. I'm hoping to get my fourth shot when I get back from Graymoor. I'd rather be safe than sorry, and I want to make sure that I keep you all safe as well.

I'd rather be safe than sorry, and I want to make sure that I keep you all safe as well. Meanwhile, I look forward to seeing more of you at Sunday coffee after the Mass.

Stay safe, Fr. Bob

Camps for Children: The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul, Toronto Central Council, helps over 1,600 children each summer, registering eligible campers through home visits. Each camper's holiday is fully subsidized through the generous annual support of Parishioners and in the case of Camp Ozanam, through the Archdiocesan, ShareLife campaign in partnership with Catholic Charities. Envelopes are available at the entrance of the church.

ShareLife: You can be a hero for those in need

The thousands of people who rely on ShareLife-funded agencies are counting on us to reach our parish goal, so the lifesaving work of these agencies can continue. "Our goal can be met, but only with your help. I invite you to join today's generation of heroes by making a sacrificial gift to ShareLife. As you contemplate the blessings God has entrusted to you, please join me in giving to ShareLife to the best of your ability." – Cardinal Thomas Collins

If you have not yet donated, you can do so using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org. Please give generously.

ENVELOPE USERS!

Please print your names on each of your offertory envelopes.

If you would like a box and never had one, just leave a message for me in the office and one will be left in the hall for you. We are using 2021 envelopes to save money, because so few were collected in 2021. Someone is using a number in the 500's and our numbers don't go that high this year.
