The Friar's Nook

Next weekend, we will celebrate feast of Saint Joan of Arc at the parish for the first time since I've been here. I've seen pictures of past celebrations that were large and involved lots of people. Since we are still trying to get on our feet after the pandemic, I am grateful for the people who stepped up to pull together a celebration for us. We certainly need some celebrating.

I know that this will be smaller than it has been in the past, but hopefully it will grow. For those of you who are not long-term parishioners, the day used to be celebrated with the Mass at High Park and celebrations thereafter. It was eventually moved over to Bishop Morocco/Thomas Merton High School grounds as there was a place to move inside in case of inclement weather. So, you can imagine how large and involved it was.

As we start back with this celebration, I look forward to seeing and celebrating with many of our parishioners. If you don't know many of the other parishioners, this will be a wonderful way to get to know them. With food, music, and fun it should be a delightful time. It seems strange to me that I would have to encourage you to party but in the busyness of our lives we sometimes need to stop and enjoy the things and the people around us.

I would love to see many more social events at the parish because as we get to know one another and celebrate our diversity we grow stronger together. We become that light shining on the hill for the world to see and in doing so we draw others either back to church or to encounter us for the first time and their lives. Celebration can also be evangelization if we do it right and celebrate with great love for each other.

Amidst the negativity in our world and the busyness of our lives, it's good to stop and enjoy even for just a small moment. I have been learning this lesson lately with Bodhi. As I take him on walks, I realize they're for his good and not for mine and so I go at his pace. He loves to stop and sniff and look around and take in all that's going around him, and it forces me to do the same rather than rushing him around the block. At first, I thought he was just tired from walking on three legs but now I realize that he just wants to encounter and experience everything around him (though I'm working on him doing that without so much barking). It might seem like a little thing, but I encourage you to join us for our Saint Joan of Arc Day celebration that together we may be refreshed and renewed. And that we might recognize the good in our lives and the good all around us.

See you there, Fr. Bob

The Deceased: Ted Grygienia,

Merrymakers Mass & Lunch

The next Merrymakers gathering will take place Thursday June 15. Mass will be at 12 noon followed by lunch. Please phone the parish office by 3 pm Monday June 12th to make a reservation. Menu: cold plate and strawberry shortcake, coffee or tea. You must RSVP, because the food is purchased according to the RSVP numbers. If you RSVP we expect you to attend.

2023 Confirmation Class

The young men and women of our Confirmation class are invited to the St. Joan of Arc Day Celebrations on June 11th. Please gather in the Terrace room at 11 am.

St. Joan of Arc Festivities

A reminder to all that our St Joan of Arc Feast Day Brunch is happening next Sunday, 11 June from 11am to noon in the parish hall. Again, for those able to bring hand-held food items for the brunch please check out the parish website or pick-up a bulletin and go to the Google form link provided OR you can fill out a sign-up form at the back of the church. We would ask anyone bringing food to please do so between 9am and 10am next Sunday, 11 June. There will be food, beverages, music and games. Hope to see you there.

D & P Fair Trade Sale

Next weekend, June 10/11, is the last Fair Trade Weekend till September. Come and stock up on your favourite coffee, chocolates, olive oil, za'atar and soap. These make wonderful Father's Day gifts. Each purchase gives back to the world.

MaryGrove Camp

Next weekend we will have the collection for MaryGrove Camp for Girls and Ozanam for boys. Envelopes can be found at the entrance of the church this weekend. Be sure to put your info on the outside of the envelope, so it can be included in your tax receipt.

ShareLife

This is the Third ShareLife Sunday of 2023. You were asking? We have been telling you our goal and the amount we have collected at the parish. Some of you send you donations directly downtown and we don't know until the end of the campaign what that total is. The total announced here is the amount that has come through the parish.

10:00 am SUNDAY LITURGY

We continue to live stream the 10:00 am Mass on our Website.
