THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

The celebration of St. Joan of Arc day last Sunday was a great success. I wish to thank the committee members for this year's event: Wanda Brown (Chair), Nellie Burrows (Co Chair), Cathi Richardson, Cynthia Lobo, Marta Skreta, Mary Ann Chard, Linda Espiritu. They all did a superb job in making this a very special day for the parish. I also want to thank the ladies of the CWL who arranged the food distribution. Dominic Caprara, as ever keeping the home fires as the grill master, with help from James Hogan, Pius Agius and Alexandra Goncz. Thanks to John Lobo, Konrad Skreta and the students of Bishop Marrocco Catholic Secondary School. Their help is always deeply appreciated. John Robertson made sure the children all caught the right fish in the pond to get their prizes. Barbara Poplawski and Grace Robertson kept the Bingo hall going with gusto. A special word of thanks goes out to Cathi Richardson, of Royal Le Page Real Estate, for generously donating the rental of the Photo Booth. What a fun new addition this was to remember the festivities. This annual event is a great day for our families to meet one another and to share in the good fun of a parish picnic. Thank you once again to all who pitched in to make this a wonderful day for all.

The finance committee met on Tuesday night and among other business, ratified our plans to hire our new minister of religious education. We welcome Vivian Kwok as our newest staff member. Vivian will begin in the second week of June, and will be present for the Annual General Meeting on Wednesday evening June 12. She will work with Cathi Richardson and Cyndi O'Grady in the orientation process pre-registration process for the September season. We will also arrange a time for Vivian to meet the parish at the Sunday Masses in the near future. We are delighted to have such a well-qualified, enthusiastic and deeply spiritual person to lead our parish stewards of religious education. Please welcome Vivian as she begins her service to the parish. I would like to thank the members of the Ministries Committee whose work in designing the position and assisting in the search process has been invaluable.

The work on the new women's washroom is coming along well. Thanks to the Building Committee who have done great work on the design, and ordering of materials and overseeing the construction. Their attention to detail and long hours of work are a great asset to the parish. It will be a great addition to the facility. Wednesday evening the RCIA program held its annual end of season pot luck supper marking the end of this year's season. We will begin again in September. Mary Jago and I will meet in June to map out next year's schedule for the RCIA, Adult Scripture Study program. The details will be posted in the bulletin at the end of the Summer.

This is always a large task. Thanks to Cyndi O'Grady, Cathi Richardson, Rosanne Kelly and Anne Francis, the materials gathered and shared experience, information and insight came together to plan well for next year. Thank you all for your prayers for me and the staff who are here to serve you, the stewards of this parish and all who come here to meet and worship the Lord. May the Good Shepherd always lead us through the guidance of the Holy Spirit to serve God's people with love and grace..

As we come to the end of this season, we are mindful of the many who will be away on holidays or at the cottage throughout the summer. May God give you a safe and restful time to be refreshed in the company of family friends and loved ones. We will welcome you home in September and keep you ever in our prayers.

In the love and joy of Christ Jesus,

Fr. Dan
