The Pastor's Corner
Peace and Goodness to All!

The hope filled memory of the Transfiguration of Jesus before the disciples provides a guiding light for our Lenten journey as it did for these disciples. Jesus revealed his true identity in relationship with Moses and the prophets to prepare his followers for the way that would lead to his passion and death on the cross. The difficult journey experienced by Moses in the desert, and the persecution of Jeremiah the prophet who now appeared with Jesus in this ecstatic vision would prefigure and shed light on the meaning of His life death and resurrection that is the bedrock of our Christian faith. This journey we take through lent prepares us and strengthens us as we prepare to celebrate the pascal mysteries of Holy Week and Easter. May the Holy Spirit guide and inspire us on the way.

This week the youth group gathered and continued their plans and projects for this year. Their enthusiasm and dedication is truly inspirational to all of us. They will be participating in the Stations of the Cross later in the season and we are always grateful for their service and dedication to the parish and to one another. Tuesday evening, the Ministries Committee met to continue its ongoing agenda to support and enhance the stewardship of our parish through the various ministries and services fostered by our many organizations. They are working on developing a follow-up survey to see what progress we have made in the past 5 years since the last survey was conducted. The new survey will be administered in the autumn of the coming year. The development of a workably efficient effective and serviceable survey tool will take some time and concentration to do well, and it seems that the best time to administer it is in the beginning of an academic year. Cathi Richardson reported that the screening process is coming along well. It was 5 years ago that the process was completed for the last major screening and so the expiration time came around for almost all of our ministers, requiring another major effort to keep us up to date on these requirements. Thank you to all who are cooperating in this necessary process to promote safety and security for all who are served by our parish.

The building committee met on Tuesday evening and covered a broad agenda from fixing the doors of the church, continuing the Fire safety plans, deciding on security issues, furthering the building envelope study and working to make general improvements and building maintenance issues come about smoothly. We owe a great debt of gratitude for the expertise and hands on work that these folks provide care and dedication to our parish facilities.

Thursday, I was in New York City for the closing ceremonies for the Archdiocesan portion of the Canonization process underway to recognize Servant of God Paul Wattson, SA as a Venerable person who should be considered by Rome to be recognized as a Saint of the Church. It was a great privilege to be among those who were gathered with Cardinal Dolan in this celebration. Let us continue to pray that Fr. Paul Wattson, the founder of the Franciscan Friars and Sisters of the Atonement, and the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity might one day be canonized a saint.

The parish sponsored Lenten Soup night fliers are in the back of the church to invite all to participate in this annual community faith building exercise of prayer fasting and almsgiving together.

The fliers explain how to become involved by saving funds from fasting, and then pooling these savings at a Soup and bread supper in the parish hall, to support Winter Welcome Table, our shared outreach with St. Peter's Church to feed the hungry. Please consider becoming involved in this process it is always a rewarding experience for all.

As we continue our Lenten journey with the Lord, let us be filled with peace and patience by the Holy Spirit on the Way.

*In the Love and Joy of Christ Jesus,
Fr. Dan*

SHARELIFE

Living the Gospel by providing for vocations to the priesthood...

"Living and studying at St. Augustine's can bring untold blessings into the lives of those entering ministry," shares Matt McCarthy, a current Seminarian. Matt's interest in sports and his desire to enter the priesthood and minister to those in his community, gives him an opportunity to serve the Church in a unique way. At ShareLife-funded agencies such as Serra House, St. Augustine's and Redemptoris Mater Seminaries, individuals undergo extensive theological education and practical field training. Through ShareLife, you are helping to sustain vocations to the priesthood and inspire discernment for God's call. Last year ShareLife helped support 70 seminarians in their formation studies.

Sunday April 2, 2017 is ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously.

Some Irish Humour

From: Ah jokes.com

Q: What's Irish and stays out all night?

A: Patty O'furniture!

Q: Why do people wear shamrocks on St. Patrick's Day?

A: Regular rocks are too heavy.

Q: Why can't you borrow money from a leprechaun?

A: Because they're always a little short.

Q: How can you tell if an Irishman is having a good time?

A: He's Dublin over with laughter!
