THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

Please look around and notice all of the great work that was done in and around the Church by the many parishioners who pitched in to participate in our annual clean up paint up fix up day last weekend. What a great deal of work was done to beautify our building and grounds. The Building Committee and gardening committee planned many of the projects in advance and carried them out beautifully. You may notice the new tool shed and storage box near the Parish Hall door and in the parking lot. Don't be misled by the half moon on the door of the shed, it is only to be used for tools. Doug Turia and Lori Moniz who were married here this weekend, painted the step edges white to improve the visibility for safety. It was not done just to match Lori's white dress as some have suggested. They did a great job and obviously kept inside the lines. William fixed the door of the Church that was broken these are always an ongoing maintenance chore. Three very industrious women with electric sanders prepared the surface of the wooden railing around the handicap access and veranda. They were hard to recognize because of the safety masks they wore, when William finishes staining this it will look brand new. Many of us were out sawing broken tree branches, raking and clearing the area near the fire plug to prepare for a terrace garden to be developed in the future.

The young people painted the terrace room with a base to be developed with designs to make this a venue for youth ministry and a place to call their own. They were: Vanessa Soares, Steffi Magdaluyo, Maysen Krasevac, Max Strychaluk, Paolo Dungao, Bryan Vargas and Iona-Seider Ramos – What a great job they did under Sheila Malloch's guidance and direction. We also were talking with the group at the Lutheran Church next door about cooperating in the expansion of the interfaith garden which provides fresh vegetables for various homeless ministries in Toronto. How can we thank you all enough for the great spirit and hard work that you demonstrated in this effort. May God continue to bless our parish with the love and vitality, that makes this Parish so wonderful.

On Monday of this week, Rosanne, Rose DiTommaso and I went to St. Paul's Basilica where Archbishop Thomas Collins and Bishop William McGrattan celebrated a special Mass of Thanksgiving for all of the Archdiocesan employees with tenures of 20 and 25 years of service. Rosanne received a certificate and a pin to commemorate her 25 years of service at St. Joan of Arc Parish. Congratulations to Rosanne and a profound word of Thank you to her for her loving and dedicated service to our parish for these many years. May God Bless her, and keep her with us for many years to come.

This week the finance committee meeting and the planning meeting for the Annual General Meeting will be held after this article is sent to the printer so I will report on these next week. Thank you all again, for your wonderful stewardship of our Parish!

May the Lord fill you with his Love and Joy in abundance.

Fr. Dan
