THE PASTOR'S CORNER
Peace and Goodness to all!

Today the Church celebrates Trinity Sunday. This feast always follows Pentecost and accentuates the relationship that is realized in God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit who dynamically creates, redeems and sustains all of creation in wonder and deepest mystery. It is impossible to fathom the depth of this great mystery in which we live and move and have our being as St. Paul so graciously has said, and yet we celebrate the generosity of God who has brought us into this dynamic relationship as adopted Daughters and Sons of God. This is realized by virtue of our baptism, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. All that we are and do as members of the body of Christ celebrates the love of God that is at the source of our life and that calls us to participate in the love of God as we participate in the struggle to live the gospel.

It is a wonderful mystery and it's easy to miss its significance as we engage in service to one another in our daily activities. Patience, Peace, forgiveness, kindness, generosity, respect, tenderness, joy, forbearance, presumption of good in others; these are all characteristics of God's loving presence in our relationships that demonstrate the truth of God with us so directly in our experiences. It is a joy to witness this lived out as I am attentive to these demonstrated in the lives and relationships of our parish. Let's be careful not to miss this.

The mundane gathering of our building committee on Tuesday where members of our parish gathered to deal with the details necessary to sustain and improve our place of worship was really a holy manifestation of good people caring for the whole community, by their attention generosity and care. The gathering of the RCIA, community, on Wednesday, to share a meal and celebrate their relationships in Christ as members of our parish, realized the joy and appreciation they have shared in the sacramental life that is new and now shared with all of us.

The staff gathered to set the calendar schedule for the anticipated life and worship in the coming year. These all participate in the very life and presence of God who inspires and empowers us to be engaged in the life of Christ that is centered in the love of God the Blessed Trinity. Those who visited and cared for the sick this week, who prayed for others, who engaged in the care of their loved ones, and who demonstrated Christian love in their daily lives all could be taken for granted, but all participate in the very life and dynamic of relationship with God that we celebrate in this wonderful feast.

May the Lord continue to inspire and empower us to live and proclaim the Gospel and to welcome all to participate in the love

In the love and Joy of Christ Jesus.
Fr. Dan

Living the Gospel by helping young families succeed

Camila was attending programs at Rose of Sharon Services for Young Mothers when she and her daughter were kicked out of the family home. As counsellors helped her search for an affordable apartment, she became pregnant a second time. Despite these challenges, Camila attended every program available to her at Rose of Sharon. At the end of the year, she walked out a stronger woman with a plan to achieve the life she wants for herself and her daughters. Last year, at ShareLife-funded agencies that assist young mothers, over 1,000 clients like Camila received support for their new families. Today is ShareLife Sunday. Thank you for your generosity.
