FROM THE DESK OF SHEILA MALLOCH

This past Friday, our Grade eights and nines were confirmed.

As part of their preparation each student was asked to write about their confirmation journey and faith. As you read the quotes from some our Confirmed, it is our prayer that you will and embrace your own confirmation promises and be filled with renewed joy.

I want to have a public declaration of my faith -- Niamh G.

I'm asking for God's grace, love and guidance, not just now, but in my life through good times and bad times. Chris M.

The sacraments are signs of God's life and love, and also confirmation is a sign that God's Holy Spirit will always be with you, and love you for always. Steffi M.

I want to be confirmed because it is a process we go through to learn our Catholic faith, to profess that we believe everything the Church teaches, to show we have accepted Jesus into our hearts and dedicated our lives to Him, also to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Julia S.

To me confirmation is like saying "I'm proud of what I believe in" which also means that I'm committing to my God, Jesus Christ. It's confirming that I believe in Him, and that it's my choice. Vanessa S.

Being confirmed is a great honour for me so I can believe and rejoice in the Lord's presence. Mayson K.

I want to be part of this great community. Going to church every Saturday evening gives me joy because I get to see new faces every time. This makes me feel confident that the good news of God is being spread. Rodney R.

I am completing the Sacraments of Initiation to show that I am a believer in Catholic faith and would like to remain as a committed member of the Catholic Church. Even more importantly, it is God confirming what has begun in us. Ronan B-M

I am asking to receive the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit; wisdom, understanding, right judgement, courage, knowledge, reverence, and wonder and awe. These gifts are blessings that I need in my life today. Shannon A.

Confirmation is so much more than just a predetermined milestone in my life. It is a way of saying to everyone that I'm Catholic and I'm proud of it. I choose this life for myself. J P. V.

Amen and Amen!

Parish Yearbook - Family Photo

Mark your calendars, we will be creating a parish directory/yearbook this spring. Each person/family who wishes to participate will have a professional photo take for the book and receive a free 8 x 10 photo. There is no cost to you or the parish to participate in this event. You will also be able sign up for a sitting by going to our website: www.joanofarc.ca, choose the link "Prayer & Links" in the links box near the top left corner of the page, and from there click on the final link on the bottom of the new page, entitled "Parish Yearbook". Photo shoots will take place May 17th to 23rd and May 31 to June 4th.

Blood Donor Clinic

The Catholic Women's League is sponsoring a Blood Donor Clinic in the church hall on Wednesday, June 8th from 4:30 to 8:30 p.m. Toronto uses more blood than it collects. Donating blood is one of the best ways to help keep our health system strong. Your blood can literally help to save up to three lives. Please book your appointment by calling 1 888 2 DONATE (1-888-236-6283). You may also walk in without an appointment. Give thanks....give the gift of life.

Did you know?

St. Joan of Arc Parish has a Funeral Reception Committee. This is not the Catholic Women's League. It consists of some CWL members, but is a totally independent parish organization. Its members come from the different organizations, but it is self-sufficient. The committee supports families by serving food and drink (provided by the family) after a funeral mass has been celebrated in the church. If you need to arrange for their services, you may contact them through the parish office.

Important message from office

Are you using Envelope #37 for 2010? Please write your name on your envelope, you are not getting credit for your donations, because we don't know who to credit!

Society of St. Vincent De Paul

The Society of St. Vincent De Paul, St. Joan of Arc's conference will be holding a bundle weekend, June 18 & 19th. The truck will be here to accept your gently used clothing and small household items. No furniture please.
