The Friar's NookHAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

I first want to thank all those who showed up for our Spring Cleanup event. For those of you who come to the church, you should notice the grounds and the building looking much better! I really appreciate all the hard work that went into it, and you should be grateful too for the parishioners who were willing to give up their Saturday mornings to make the parish a more beautiful place.

This is just in time for Mother's Day. But before we get to that, last weekend we celebrated our parish Confirmation Mass with me filling in for the bishop (I don't have the pointy hat though). It was wonderful to have a full church after two years of COVID. The Mass is available online on our Facebook page if you'd like to check it out. Also, yesterday we celebrated even more first Communions. As I remind them and their families, that this is only the first of many communions and that their second communion should be tomorrow, Sunday, at Mass. In my former parish we had a lot of parents who dropped their kids off for religious education, but we never went to Mass. This was testified to by the kids asking me "What's that big room used for?" they were referring to the church. I truly hope that's not the case here in Toronto because it's certainly been a cause for great happiness seeing our young people receive their sacraments and I look forward to seeing them grow in the parish.

Now back to Mother's Day. Wish to offer you much happiness on this day, whether you have children of your own or not. I have been mothered not only by my mother, but by aunts, sisters, friends of the family and personal friends. Showing care, compassion, and guidance to me is the essence of being a mother so it's open to all people. In fact, it's a great example of what living the Christian life is all about -caring for others. I hope you have been as fortunate as I to receive the mothering love that I have from many people in your life because it's a great example of how to live your life for others. A mother is one who gives life and supports it. For those of you who do this celebrate the fact that you were sharing in the ministry of God himself! In honor of my own mother, this is the last month that you will see this long scraggly beard on me. I know she's looking down from heaven and saying, "Get rid of that!" And so, in this month we will begin selling raffle tickets so that you yourself have an opportunity to cut off this long COVID beard. On Pentecost, Sunday June 5th, the winner will be drawn after the 10:00 o'clock mass at coffee time and will be handed the scissors. I'm hoping to raise a good deal of funds for the church buy this raffle because not only do you get to cut off the long beard, but you get to keep it (as long as you promise not to use it in a voodoo doll) and if ever I become a saint (quit laughing) it will be a first-class relic! All that being said I would like to start up our Sunday coffees again. We are allowed to gather in the hall and I'm planning on making a slight change in that whoever is hosting Sunday coffee simply needs to set up the coffee and tea we will provide Timbits© so you don't need to bake. If you think you would like to be put on the schedule for this, please contact the office and let us know so we can start putting the schedule together and spending time with each other.

Blessings to mothers and to all, Fr. Bob
