THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

We've got Talent! Last Sunday, one of our young parishioners, Jason Lobo was tinkling the keys of the piano, and his family showed me a flier advertising the Civic Light-Opera Co. production of the musical Oliver. Jason is listed as one of the actors in this production which will be at the Fairview Library Theater from Dec. 11 – 22. I hope some of you can experience this lovely production. Congratulations Jason Lobo, "Break a Leg"

Treasures for the Catholic Woman's League Bazaar have been pouring in all week to make this event a great place to do some early Christmas shopping. I think the spirit of Bro. Kevin is still with us since many of the items in our storage space like a food processor and an electric sealer were donated in his memory. Thank you to all whose donations make this affair so special each year that it occurs. Thank you to all the members of the C.W.L. whose time and effort make this a very special event a part of our parish activities. Please go over and browse the goodies available and win a raffle or two after the masses and into this afternoon.

The building committee met on Tuesday to make more progress on the completion of the choir area and some of the other good works they do to keep our facilities in good working order. We are working now to arrange for the wiring and the sound systems to be installed before laying the carpet and installing new chairs. Thank you to Rose Di Tommaso who will be donating chairs for the choir area and the hall for future banquets. Thank you to all the members of this committee for the great work you do behind the scenes to make our gathering and worship possible. May God Bless the work of your hands!

The RCIA and Scripture study group continue to gather every Wednesday evening to reflect on the Word of the Lord and to work with those who are contemplating the reception of the Easter Sacraments of initiation. Please remember this group in your daily prayers, as they are a blessing to our parish and a sign of ever new life.

Thank you to all of you who make St. Joan of Arc the vibrant and welcoming parish the Lord has blessed us to be.

In the Love and Joy of Christ!
Fr. Dan

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL- Nov.16/17

The truck will be in our parking lot, to accept your gently used clothing and household items. *Please note we are not collecting furniture in the truck.

*If you have furniture to donate please call the parish and leave a message at ext. 232. Our Vincentians will collect the items. We have had requests for two chest of drawers. We only collect what we have had requests for, as we have not storage space.

SHEPHERD'S TRUST, November 16/17

There will be a collection for The Shepherds' Trust. The mission of The Shepherds' Trust is to help ensure that elderly and disabled priests are provided with sufficient financial resources to lead a dignified life after many years of ministry. Your generous gift will help our priests to maintain a modest but active and independent lifestyle in their retirement years. For priests who are ill or otherwise infirm, the Trust ensures they have access to nursing home facilities and medical care. Thank you for your support of this important work. Envelopes are available at the entrances of the church.

STUDENT WRITING AWARD.

Students aged 14 to 18 are invited to write a five hundred word essay on the theme of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, celebrated Jan. 18 to 25, 2014..this year's theme "Has Christ been divided?" See more details on the bulletin board in the hall. Deadline for entries is Jan 10, 2014.

ATTENTION:

Whoever is using envelope #592. Please put your name and address on your envelope. We can't record your donations, this number is not assigned to any name. Thank you, The Parish Office.
