THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to All!

The parable of the Widow's might which is remembered in today's gospel reading inspires us to appreciate the gift of Stewardship that is ours at St. Joan of Arc Parish. As we give of our time, talent and resources, we contribute to the life and vitality of our parish community. How deeply blessed we are to be so richly involved in the life of Christ through our continuing engagement in the stewardship of the parish.

On Tuesday evening Sheila gathered the parents and children from this year's first Communion class for family night. It was well attended and I am so deeply grateful for the involvement of these families in the religious formation of these children. We also extend our thanks to the dedicated catechists who teach these children each week in this time of preparation.

Tuesday evening the Ministries Committee gathered to continue the process of analyzing the data from our parish survey to make recommendations for our continuing growth and service to the parish. They will prepare a synopsis for the parish council meeting next Tuesday. Please come to hear the initial report they will present at that time.

The bible study and RCIA programs continue to meet on Wednesday evenings. The bible study and religious education for adults that is offered here is in reply to the many requests that were made for us to offer adult education. This responds to the survey in a way that we hope is satisfying and rewarding to all who participate. I am grateful to Mary Jago for her continued dedication to these programs. Please know that all are welcome to attend these classes each Wednesday evening at 7:30.

May the Lord continue to bless us in our stewardship of the parish so we may serve Him in our work together.

In the love and joy of Christ.

Fr. Dan
