The Pastor's Corner
Peace & Goodness to All!

These last weeks in Ordinary time of the liturgical year, the focus of the Gospel is on the end times. Jesus predicts that wars, earthquakes, famine, plagues, and dreadful portents will appear. It reads like the nightly news. In the midst of these things Jesus cautions his followers they will have opportunities to testify. Actually by our calm awareness of God's presence in the midst of today's struggles, we have such opportunities to give Christian witness to our Faith in God's power and presence. Prayer is the key component to make us aware of God's presence in the real world we live in, and actions taken to help others who suffer is vital and effective testimony. This week I witnessed the volunteers in our shared Interfaith Garden, pulling out the remnants of the vegetables that were grown to supply St. Francis Table, Winter Welcome Table and other venues that feed the hungry. This was the end time for the garden for this season that was preparing for next year. It seemed symbolic of the gospel. The services that are provided for those who suffer gives solid witness to the Gospel values that we pray become our own, even as we help those who fall victim to life's difficulties. In our Zone meeting last week, Bishop Robert Kasun the newly appointed auxiliary for this central region expressed his deep interest in the ways our parishes serve the needs of others. It is a blessing to our parish that we have opportunities to serve the Lord in tangible ways.

Thank you for your prayers for the Friars as we met as a General Council to prepare for an important gathering to revitalize our Community Charism to attract vocations and better serve our Lord in religious life and ministry. This week, Fr. Timothy MacDonald, SA will be moving into our Laxton Ave. house with other friars in the hope to develop a place to facilitate vocational discernment. Fr. Tim will be helping out with Sunday masses, so please give him a very warm welcome. We are also hoping to bring in other friars to increase our vitality for prayer and service to the parish.

Monday evening the Youth group gathered to plan our annual St. Nicholas Sunday, replacing what we called Advent'ure Sunday. Many fun activities are planned to make this fun for the families. Liam Silvera, who is helping Cathi Richardson in the leadership of this group will be our Santa Claus. Once again Santa will collect toys from the children to put in our sleigh for the St. Vincent de Paul Christmas distribution. Thank you all for your participation in this annual event.

The RCIA program continues on Wednesday evenings and we are welcoming new additions through Christmas.

Thursday the Finance Committee met to discuss the financial needs that will be developing as we grow our ministries. They will present the facts of life and the costs to the parish along with solutions to facilitate our growth in stewardship as the year progresses. We are blessed to have such gifted and generous individuals to advise and guide us in meeting our fiscal challenges. I am deeply grateful for their service. Thank all of you for your participation and contributions to the life and ministry of the parish.

Winter Welcome Table has begun again this year, our groups will alternate with the groups from St. Peter's Parish in preparing and serving the meals, providing hospitality for the clients and helping in the clean up. Thank you all for your participation in this important ministry.

God is so gracious and good to us in giving us so many opportunities to serve others in Gospel witness. Thank you all for being a part of this vibrant parish. May God Bless you richly.

*In the Love and Joy of Jesus,
Fr. Dan*
