The Friar's Nook
Peace and Goodness to all!

As we come to the final weeks of Ordinary Time the Sunday readings focus on end times and apocalyptic themes. The early winter weather this week played into this theme pointing to what is to come. Our faith brings us through the winter with the new life of Christmas, knowing that there is always new life to come in Spring. The Advent season disposes to pray in hopeful anticipation of the new life that is born to us in Jesus. This theme anticipates the fuller appreciation of life after death that we celebrate through Lent to Easter. Our RCIA participants will learn about the liturgical year's cycles of life in this coming week as we examine the Liturgical calendar. You are welcome to attend this session which meets every Wednesday at 7:30 in the meeting room.

Fr. Bob and I were attending General Council meetings last week, and then Fr. Bob took a few days off for vacation. I had intended to be here all week, but was called to do Bro. Pascal Steen's funeral at Graymoor. Pascal was 96 years old and a dear friend of mine from my years in Saranac Lake NY. While at Graymoor, I was called to do the funeral of my dear Friend Msgr.. Bill Gallagher, a priest from the diocese of Buffalo who has been a life long friend, a great mentor and pastoral presence in my life. Between funerals I flew overnight to Washington to be with my sister who received a Congressional award for her work with foster care and adopted children in the state of Florida. What a whirl wind.

The General Council meetings discussed some important matters for the coming year, which Fr. Bob and I will talk about at this week's masses. While we were away, the Ministries Committee gathered to discuss the plans to rejuvenate our parish dedication to Stewardship. I want to thank Les Muniak, and Cathi Richardson for the initiatives that are going forward. We are deeply gifted as a parish and it is inspiring to see so many of you coming forward to support our efforts in time talent and treasure.

It is a joy and privilege to serve as your pastors, In the love and Joy of Christ Jesus.

Fr. Dan, Fr. Bob, The Friars

PASTORAL VISITORS MINISTRY

Is your loved one homebound, sick, or in hospital? Do you know a St. Joan of Arc parishioner who is unable to come to mass and receive communion? St. Joan of Arc has a ministry of lay pastoral visitors who serve out parish by visiting the homebound and sick. We bring the Church to them, offering communion and serving as a reminder that the love and mercy of Christ and our parish extend well beyond our four walls. Please contact the parish office or Fr. Bob to arrange for a visit from a Lay Pastoral Visitors

SHEPHERD'S TRUST COLLECTION IS TODAY.

As parishioners, we have reaped the benefits of our priests' selfless service. In the Archdiocese of Toronto, our priests lovingly act as "bridges of mercy," bringing the beautiful gift of Christ's love to our families and communities. The Shepherds' Trust appeal offers us the opportunity to recognize that service in a tangible way.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

Annual Christmas Bazaar – Sincere thanks to everyone who made our Bazaar on November 10th a wonderful event – parish staff, parishioners, volunteers, donors, and sponsors! We couldn't have done it without you!!! We had a great response from everyone involved, and the event was a success! Thanks to you, the proceeds from our Bazaar will benefit our church and several other local charities. The ladies of the CWL are very grateful for your support! Thank you so much!

DEVELOPMENT & PEACE

- 1) Next week-end Fair Trade coffee and other products will be sold after all the Masses.
- 2) Did you know that climate change and the ecological threat to the environment posed by Amazon deforestation is similar to threats faced by Canada's North as Arctic ice disappears? Please sign D & P's solidarity letter regarding the Amazon on November 23-24 in the parish hall.
