THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to All!

The CWL Bazaar was a great success on Sunday, and I want to thank Inez for her stellar leadership of the CWL volunteers who worked so hard to make this annual event one to remember. Our Lady of Good Council is always interceding in the background of all the good work that is accomplished by this wonderful organization that is such an asset to our parish life. Thank you for all you are and do for St. Joan of Arc Parish.

Monday evening the Pastoral Care Committee met to discuss the many shut-ins and care home residents they serve to bring compassionate care and the Holy Eucharist to enrich the lives of many. This group of ministers serve throughout the year to sustain the loving outreach of our parish community to members who cannot attend Sunday Eucharist. We are deeply grateful for their service and the extension of the Love of Christ to those they serve. Thank you to all of you!

On Tuesday the Merrymakers gathered to celebrate the Holy Eucharist and to enjoy a Christmas Lunch in the hall in memory of Bro. Kevin Goss, SA, who started this ministry nine years ago. Dominic Caprara cooked a wonderful meal of roast pork with salad, two wonderful vegetable side dishes and a terrific desert of home baked chocolate pie covered with fresh cranberry sauce. What a great feast! 85 of our seniors came to celebrate this day. It was a bit early because so many of our seniors will be with family for the Christmas holidays. We sang our first Christmas Carols to start the season right. We are grateful to the many volunteers who helped in the preparation and serving of this great meal that brings fellowship and joy to our senior community. May God Bless them with the new life of Christmas Joy.

The Ministries Committee gathered on Tuesday night to continue to focus on deepening our parish mission in the faith of the Church, the value of ministry and the insight of the Atonement Friar's Charisma of Ecumenical hospitality as we develop mission and vision statements to direct our parish ministries. We are deeply grateful for the leadership this committee is bringing to our parish. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide and direct us to become the parish God calls us to be.

On Wed. Sheila and I attended the Zone 5 meeting of the Archdiocese to focus on youth ministry and other areas of service that invite cooperation among surrounding parishes. Later I went to St. Luke's parish in Thorn Hill to attend a Ministry development committee meeting to discuss formation for lay leadership that is being developed by the Archdiocese for all parishes. If you believe you would like to become involved in formation for leadership, please let me know and we can perhaps help you become involved in the programs they provide.

Saturday Fr. Damian came over to help me as we celebrated the sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time with our First Communion Class for this year. What a joy it is to see the dedication of our parents and catechists as they work together to prepare our children to encounter the love of Jesus in the Sacramental life of the Church. Thank you to all for your love and dedication.

Next week we will begin to celebrate the Sunday Eucharist in the new format provided by the Sunday Missal. We thank you for your prayerful participation and patience as we inaugurate the changes that come about. We thank Christian McConnell, Susan McElcheran and Daniel Godin, especially for preparing us to sing the parts of the mass that are changing with grace and beauty. As ever, I am humbly grateful for the love and dedication of everyone in the parish whose stewardship and participation continues to enrich and develop our parish ministries. May God bless you richly in the grace and Joy of Christ. Fr. Dan

Please Pray for:

Sick: Vivian Hegadoran, Anne Marie Curley, Betty, Mary, Gordon Clifford, John Harvey

Deceased: Fr. David Doerner Sa, Cay Maddaford, Frank Mullen

Congratulations

To the children of the parish who received their First Reconciliation this weekend. Let us pray for them as they continue to prepare for their First Communion.

St. Nicholas is Coming to St. Joan of Arc

As we will not be holding our Advent'sure Sunday, St. Nicholas will be here at St. Joan of Arc on December 4th for the 10 am and 12 noon masses, to accept your donations of toys from the children on behalf of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. (see next notice.)

St. Vincent de Paul Society

For the past 48 years, our parish conference has delivered, on your behalf gifts and groceries at Christmas time to the less fortunate. Sixty-five families received our help in 2010 and were more than thrilled. We are asking for donations of new unwrapped toys, hats, mitts, scarves again this year. Gift certificates would also be appreciated for older children. Vincentians will be available in the hall before and after all the masses Dec.3 & 4th and 10th & 11th, to accept your donations.

Faith Connections' THEOLOGY ON TAP

Young adults (19-39) are invited to a social evening of thought-provoking discussion on "Icons of Christ, Mary and the Nativity" with guest Jaroslav Skira, professor of Eastern Christianity. Munchies provided, cash bar, come and bring a friend! Monday, November 28, 7:00pm at the Duke of York Pub (39 Prince Arthur Ave, Toronto). More info: call 416-467-2645 or visit www.faithconnections.ca – a ministry Fontbonne Ministries, Sisters of St. Joseph of Toronto.

Franciscan Friars of the Atonement-Graymoor and the Catholic Register

Present The 2012 Student Writing Award -The theme for the 2012 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity comes from cf.1Cor.15:51-58. Students are invited to carefully reflect on this Scripture passage and submit a 500 word essay answering the question: "What must be changed in order to attain Christian Unity for the Church"? (First Prize: An iPad 2, 16GB, 2nd Prize: An Amazon Kindle Fire). The top three essays will be edited and published in the Catholic Register. Deadline for entries is Jan. 9, 2011. See posters in the church and the parish hall. For more details call 416 934-3400 ext 344.

2012 Offertory Envelopes

Boxes are setup in the hall. Please collect your box as soon as possible. If you didn't have a box in 2011 and would like one for 2012, please go to the office and a box will be issued to you.
