FRIAR'S NOOK

Peace and Goodness to all!

Today is the last Sunday of the church year. From the readings at Mass these past weeks about the end times it should be obvious. However, the church does not end at this time of year. In fact, it seems to get busier! But just like the resurrection of Jesus, the church starts anew with new life.

As we move into Advent – a time of expectant waiting – we anticipate the arrival of Jesus in the flesh. As the world around us seems to get busier with the events of the season, we grow quieter inside that we might be ready for Christmas.

To that end, the Xavierian Sisters will be hosting an Advent reflection each weekday after the 5:30 Mass. It will be a half hour to quiet down, consider our blessings, and thank God for them. We are grateful for them sharing their spirit with us. Also, on Tuesday, December 3rd the choirs will host and Advent Service of Lessons and Carols. With local choirs and ministers it will be a great way to start our Advent preparations! The parish Advent retreat will take place on Saturday, December 7th from 10 – 12, all are invited to attend. On Tuesday December 10th the Advent Reconciliation Service will take place so that we can better prepare for Christmas.

That is not all, the Ministry Committee, the Finance Committee, and the newly formed Stewardship Committee are getting ready to launch renewed programs at St. Joan of Arc soon. Be on the lookout for them and see what you can do to make the parish an even better place!

As the year winds to a close we are also saddened by the news that Fr. Dan will be leaving for a new job at Graymoor. Starting January 1st, he will become the Mission Effectiveness Officer for the Friars and Guardian of the Friars at Graymoor. It is a large undertaking and we wish him well. We are grateful for the many years he spent at Joan of Arc and the shepherding he did. We will have farewells for him after the 5:30 Mass on Saturday, December 21st and after the 10, 12, and 7PM on Sunday, December 22nd.

As the world around us becomes colder and darker let us not lose sight of the light of Christ that comes to us and share the warmth of His love this Season .

*Peace, love and joy,
The Friars*

PASTORAL VISITORS MINISTRY

Is your loved one homebound, sick, or in hospital? Do you know a St. Joan of Arc parishioner who is unable to come to mass and receive communion? St. Joan of Arc has a ministry of lay pastoral visitors who serve out parish by visiting the homebound and sick. We bring the Church to them, offering communion and serving as a reminder that the love and mercy of Christ and our parish extend well beyond our four walls. Please contact the parish office or Fr. Bob to arrange for a visit from a Lay Pastoral Visitors

JOIN CREATION CARE MINISTRY AT THE GLOBAL CLIMATE STRIKE

November 29th is the 40th anniversary of St. Francis of Assisi being declared the patron saint of ecology. To honour this day consider walking along the way of intergenerational solidarity and ecological conversion by joining the youth at the Global Climate Strike happening just prior to the UN Climate Change Conference 2-13 December in Spain. Creation Care Ministry is inviting people to gather for a short prayer in southeast Queen's Park at 11:15 am after which we will join the climate strike and walk together. See the Creation Care Ministry bulletin board for details.
