THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Today we begin a new liturgical year with the first Sunday of Advent. This season remembers the dawn of God's revelation to us through the time of waiting and hope that the season represents.

Each week as we illuminate each advent candle, more light begins to dawn on our own gradual awakening to the fullness of God's revelation in the birth of Christ. In Spanish, one word, esperar, expresses expectation. It translates in English: to wait, or to hope. Advent is the time of waiting expectantly for the birth of our Saviour. Mary the mother of Jesus in her pregnancy is the symbol of our expectant waiting for the Word of God to be realized in all of us who are called to hear the Word and to pray with her to God, "be it done to me according to your Word".

As the world is busy with its Holiday shopping and festive preparations we are challenged to look to the light that shines in the darkness to show us the Christ for whom we celebrate. The challenge can only be met in prayer, but where is there time for prayer? Perhaps it is in the waiting. As the lines grow longer in the stores and we are stuck in the traffic jams we're delayed. Oh we wait, but do we hope? This is time and opportunity to remember what, and for Whom we are all about in this holy season. Waiting happens, but so often I forget to be patient. (Love is patient, love is kind).

God is with us in the waiting, waiting for us to remember to be kind and patient with the others in the line. Some in the line may be spending their last dime for food at the grocers or for a gift for a loved one. Some have so many troubles on their mind. Some in the line will wonder how you can remain so calm and be so pleasant so willing maybe to give your place in line to them. If we wait with patience our eyes may open to see and pray and wonder about the others all around us. We may even meet the Lord and talk with him in prayer or gentle conversation. Let's enjoy the time of waiting in the busy world around us by God's grace and constant presence, then for sure we'll celebrate the one for whom we wait and hope at Christmas.

Fr. Dan
