THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

As we celebrate All Saints and All Souls' Day to begin November, let us continue to pray through the intercession of the saints and with the souls of those who have gone before us, that we may grow ever more faithful to Christ in whose body we are united with them in the Lord. Our All Souls novena will continue throughout next week to remember our deceased loved ones.

Thank you to the building committee members, garden committee and others who participated in our semi-annual cleanup-paint up fix up and gardening day on last Saturday. We are now better prepared for the winter months to come.

Monday evening the youth group gathered to celebrate Halloween with much laughter, and spooky fun. They were visited by some rather strange creatures and remarkably were not the least bit scared. They are a brave bunch and we are grateful for their membership and belonging in our faith community.

The CWL gathered also on Monday for their monthly meeting and were quite surprised to have a ghoulish figure wander among them offering chocolates from a spooky treasure chest. We are grateful to the Catholic Women's league for all they do to support our parish in the Stewardship of The Gospel. The annual bazaar will be held next Sunday and is a great occasion to do some Christmas Shopping.

At our staff meeting today, we discussed plans for the Semi-Annual Parish retreat day which will be dedicated to the vitality of Stewardship that is the hallmark of our parish life and spirituality. We encourage all of you to attend this Saturday morning event on December 1. We usually begin with coffee and muffins at 9:30 in the hall, and then begin the retreat at 10:00 to 12 noon. This is also an occasion to sign up for participation in the Christmas Liturgical celebrations. Please mark this date on your calendar.

Progress continues to be made on gathering photos for our 100th anniversary book. We have over 300 family photos taken and there is just one more opportunity to have your picture taken. We are grateful to the committee who is gathering to lay out the parish historical photos and create a collage of pictures that are will represent St. Joan of Arc parish in this historical time.

Thank you to all the various ministry groups and members who have signed up to provide meals for Winter Welcome Table from the months of November through April. This is a blessed outreach that God has given us to serve and we are grateful to all who participate in this important ministry.

Please watch the bulletin to see details on St. Nicolas Day, when we invite our Children to bring a toy to Santa, so he can work with the St. Vincent DePaul Society in the distribution of toys to deserving children at Christmas. At the staff meeting we remembered some of the amusing times when little children presented their gifts letting go a bit reluctantly or seeking to take another from those collected in Santa's Sleigh. Thank you to all who so generously and thoughtfully participate in this annual event. There are so many reasons to say thank you to all of you who make St. Joan of Arc Parish a vibrant community. It is my joy and privilege to serve as your pastor.

In the Peace and Joy of Christ Jesus,

Fr. Dan

Please Pray for:

PASTORAL CARE WORKERS

Do you take communion to our shut-ins? We are trying to start a new system. There is a clip board in the sacristy and you are asked to sign it when taking communion to our homebound parishioners. Letting us know how many you are visiting. We are trying to get a count of how many visits are being made.

Share the Journey- No one should be forced to flee their home- Development and Peace fall campaign 2018 across Canada focuses attention on forced migration around today's world. - There are some 68.5 million people on the move- we are being asked to see these large numbers as people just like us forced to flee their homes.

Parish Retreat December 1

Will take place Saturday, December 1, 10:00 am to 12:00 pm. Everyone is encouraged to attend! Ministry and Parish Group leaders are asked to pass the invitation to your members.
