The Pastor's Corner

Peace and Goodness to All!

On Monday the youth gathered to remember their Spooky Halloween Family night which was a successful venture and they discussed the various activities they will engage in balancing the fun, spiritual and ministerial outreach efforts that are all a part of their purpose. We are grateful for these young people who bring much vitality and enthusiasm to the parish.

Tuesday evening the families of the children who will receive the Sacrament of First Reconciliation and Eucharist gathered to commence their program for this year. It is inspiring to see these dedicated families as they continue the important traditions which transmit the gift of faith to the next generation. Let us pray for these children and their families throughout the year, that they may grow in their relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the life of the Church. On Tuesday I also announced that Vivian Kwok, the minister of religious education will be leaving her position here as she continues her work with the Ecumenical Office of the Archdiocese of Toronto. Vivian has contributed much to the organization of our religious education programs and has facilitated the continuation of the programs for the rest of this year. We are now in the process of searching for a minister of religious education.

The Ministries Committee also met on Tuesday evening and has set this process as a priority in its work of discernment to find the right person for this important ministry. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit will send the right person to provide leadership for religious education in our parish.

The RCIA, Scripture and Religious education gathering continues to integrate new members into our program on Wednesday evenings. This is a great opportunity to learn about our faith and to help those considering adult baptism and reception of the Easter Sacraments to become members of our faith community. We gather each Wednesday at 7:30 pm and all are welcome to attend. Please call the office if you are interested.

This weekend the Catholic Women's League, (CWL) is sponsoring its annual Christmas Bazaar. It's a great opportunity to do some early shopping. Please stop in the hall after mass to see what treasures you might find in their tables. What is not sold will be contributed to the St. Vincent de Paul Society who will have the truck in the Church parking lot next weekend for "Bundle Sunday" It's a great time to clean out our closets of cloths and usable items that can be donated to this charity.

Thank you all and Congratulations to the parish as we have almost reached our goal for the Family of Faith Program. Any further contributions or pledges to this program will come more directly to the parish. Until the goal is reached, the contributions were split so 75% would go to the Archdiocese and 25% to the parish. Once the goal is reached the ratio is reversed and 75% comes to the parish and 25% to the Archdiocese. Thank you all for your prayerful generosity in this important capital campaign, further pledges and contributions will continue to be processed through Anne Francis, in the finance office.

This week in the gospel we contemplate the story of "the widow's might" a story of great generosity even in the midst of want. I am always mindful of the many generous seniors who contribute their time, talent and treasure for the good and growth of the parish. To them and to all who participate in the Stewardship of our community I want to say thank you and God Bless you.

It is a great privilege and pleasure to serve as your pastor.

In the love and joy of Christ Jesus, Fr. Dan
