THE PASTOR'S CORNER

God Bless you with peace and goodness!

We were happy to accept several new persons to our RCIA program on Wednesday Evening, along with others who have joined us to journey with the new candidates along the road to conversion throughout the liturgical year. Mary Jago lead the first session of welcome and introduction. Thank you for your prayers for the individuals in this program we are off to a great start. Each day God gives us the grace of new beginnings but it is clearly evident as we begin our regularly scheduled programs in September and October.

Tuesday evening, Fr. Rich Colgan, Sr. Elizabeth Losinski and I renewed the covenant among our religious communities as sponsors of The Winter Welcome Table. These include The Paulist Fathers, The Sisters of Sion and the Atonement Friars. Frank Ficker, Marie Parisi and Julio Chuquihuara were there as perennial leaders in this wonderful ministry that has planned 44 weeks of Hot Suppers and warm hospitality hosted as ever at St. Peter's Church on Bathurst and Bloor. On alternating weeks groups from our two parishes provide the teams of individuals who prepare a wonderful dinner and serve the guests who come each Monday evening. The time of the Oct. 20th, Winter Welcome planning meeting will be posted in the bulletin. In the coming weeks there will be a drive for winter coats, for Christmas gifts and contributions to this ministry which is a beneficiary of several of our fundraising drives that empower us to serve Christ in this way. Thank you to all of you who participate in this outreach of the parish.

Our stewardship weekend was a great success and we are now processing the volunteers and the screening forms to complete the rosters of our organizations and the required documentation. Thank you to so many of you who worked so hard to set this up and walk it through. Josie Caprara, Richard Tone and Bro. John did a great job in the screening process. Rose DiTomasso, Bro. John, Sheila, William, Nellie Burrows, Dominic & Maria Caprara, Barbara, Rosanne and of course the many of you, not here mentioned who participated in this that I know there are names left out. Please forgive my oversight, but know my gratitude to all of you is heartfelt and profound.

If you were unable to attend the Stewardship weekend, and wish to participate in an organization, please take a form from the office, fill it out, and return it. We will be conducting screening over the phone to complete the process and get you connected to the ministry you wish to serve.

Thursday the Monthly Zone 5 meetings resumed, and Sheila and I attended this meeting that keeps us involved in Archdiocesan perspectives and activities. We will miss Bishop Grecco's attendance and will look forward to working with his replacement.

On Friday morning, at 10:30 we will celebrate the monthly first Friday mass of healing and anointing at Loyola Arrupe Center. All are welcome to attend. Friday evening after the 5:30 mass we will have the monthly adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with Benediction. We hope you will join this holy hour of prayer sponsored by the Knights of Columbus with the scriptural rosary prayed in common.

Once again I wish to thank you for being such a prayerful and dedicated parish, it is a privilege to serve as your pastor.

With love and gratitude,
Fr. Dan
