THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Peace and Goodness to all!

By God's grace we are moving back into the ordinary schedule of our parish meetings and events. This has been a particularly fruitful week and we are grateful. As the religious education programs and Stewardship activities begin, please look at the schedules in the bulletin so you can be informed of the times and occasions that are important to you. Perhaps the most important event will be Stewardship Weekend which will showcase all of our parish organizations, activities and outreach opportunities to become involved in the Life Worship and Service to the Church.

On Monday Fr. Mon and the friars who live at our Laxton House came here for a dinner to wish Victor Staruszkiewicz all God's blessings as he begins his journey in the formation process for entry into the Atonement Friars community. We had a fine relaxing evening and good time together as a community. Victor is scheduled to begin his Postulancy at our friary on Waverly Place in New York City on Oct. 1. He has been involved in the life of the parish for 8 or 9 years in between the time of his University education. He is a fine and generous young man and we ask that you pray with us that he will persevere in his formation program. Please pray both for Victor and for vocations to religious life and priesthood for the Church.

Tuesday evening the Finance Committee met to resume its responsibilities in advising me on the important financial and fiduciary matters for the parish.

We have a very dedicated and professional group of men and women who serve on this committee and I am grateful for their service. We are searching out new membership to meet the rotation requirements of this group, so if you are interested in becoming a member of the finance committee, please submit a resume either to the parish office or to me personally so you may be considered for this ministry.

Thursday the priests from Zone 5 of the Central region of the Archdiocese gathered here for its monthly meeting to discuss issues that involve the parishes in our local region. It is always a joy to gather with our local clergy for discussion and share in the fellowship.

This coming Sunday the 10:00 AM Choir returns for another season and we are deeply grateful to them for the wonderful music they bring forth from the whole community. The coffee ministry will also once again be providing refreshments in the parish hall after Mass. Thank you to all the volunteers who participate in this opportunity for fellowship following the liturgy.

As the vibrant dimensions of our parish come back into play for another season let us Thank God for the vitality warmth and welcome the community provides for all who enter here. Thank you all for your faithful and dedicated participation in all that we are and do for the Glory of God as we strive to live and proclaim the Gospel through our Stewardship, and Welcome All!

In the love and Joy of Christ Jesus

Please Pray for:

The Sick: Jim Mickler, Brian Simpson, Patricia Luis, Walter Petraschuk

The Deceased: Jimmy Galea, Wendy Grech, Krystan Olmedo, Antonia Arcentales Terri Daurio, James Greenhow & Maria Koelle
