DOCTRINAL CORNER

Does my separation and civil divorce, prohibit me from receiving Holy Communion?

“Anyone who desires to receive Christ in Eucharistic communion must be in the state of grace. Anyone aware of having sinned mortally must not receive communion without having received absolution in the sacrament of penance.” (CCC: 1415). If the divorced are remarried civilly, the Church maintains that the new union cannot be recognized as valid if the first marriage is valid: “they cannot receive Eucharistic communion as long as this situation persists”, (CCC: 1650)

Jesus healed Jairus's daughter by saying “Talitha cum” which means “little girl, get up!”. Has the Lord called you to get up and walk? Perhaps Jesus wants you to help others get up and walk. If you feel God is calling you to priesthood, religious life or the diaconate, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.
e-mail: vocations@archtoronto.org

REFLECTIONS ON STEWARDSHIP

While summer is a beautiful time for rest and vacation, it should never be a vacation away from God. If we're not using the summer as an opportunity to grow deeper in our relationship with Christ, we are not making the most of our time. Along with our time of leisure, we should try to use our time to volunteer with various summer programs including Catholic summer camps across the diocese.
