June is Seniors Month

There are 900 million persons in the world over the age of 60. In Canada there are more persons over the age of 65 than children under the age of

15. A new ministry is emerging in churches to support the faith development of "maturing adults" throughout the multiple transitions that mark the second half of life. Through connections with self, others, creation and God, it is our greatest asset in the aging process.

"Thank you for your example of love, dedication and wisdom. Continue with courage to bear witness to these values! Let not your smiles and the beautiful brightness of your eyes be lacking in society." – Pope Francis to Seniors

DOCTRINAL CORNER

Can mortal sins be forgiven without confession and can one go to confession online?

Sacramental confession is normatively required for the forgiveness of mortal sins. Mortal sins separate us from God and community and the healing of this rift must begin in the heart of the penitent by way of contrition, then confession and restitution. It was Jesus' command that the apostles forgive sins – or to refuse forgiveness as their judgment dictated. The priest, who acts in the person of the merciful and forgiving Jesus, acts also in His stead to forgive sins, and as a representative of the Church, to reconcile the penitent to the community. Thus sacramental confession is normally required for the forgiveness of mortal sins. In extreme cases, like in the case of a dying person who has no access to a priest, his mortal sins may be forgiven if he truly repents for his sins and has at least the implicit intention of going to sacramental confession when the earliest opportunity comes.

Online confession is not possible. For one to receive the sacrament he must be physically present with the minister.

Living the Gospel by maximizing the impact of your donation

Administered by SE Health, the Shared Services Initiative is supporting ShareLife-funded agencies in the areas of human resources, financial services and information technology. Participating agencies are able to improve the quality, competency and accuracy of their work. Through this initiative, ShareLife agencies are reducing their administrative expenses and ensuring that the maximum amount received is directed to the front-line services they provide.

Please make a sacrificial gift to ShareLife through your parish or sharelife.org.
