EASTER REFLECTION BOOKS

The "Little White" Easter Reflection books for the 50 days of Easter are available at both church entrances. Please help yourself.

From Father Mark: In the 14th Century hymn that is ours under the title "Jesus Christ is Ris'n Today" the words draw us to the understanding that it is our day of triumph, our day of holiness, our day of victory and our day of understanding that these past days of Triduum lead us with one word:

Alleluia... That's all we can say to describe what we have done, where we have been and how much God truly loves us.

With this in mind, the words Thank You seem almost to be insignificant in how I would like to describe what is in my heart over these days (and months) that we have been together. I had to go through a period of mourning letting St. Paul the Apostle Parish go. It was a remarkable six years, of growth, of joy, of all the many things that make us as we are. You were patient in accepting me, and letting me, in my own time, say so long to them. In all of that, you were kind, welcoming, gentle, loving and very forgiving. I belong here, and many of you have let me know that. And what I say to you is: Alleluia!

For the many people who have worked so hard to ensure that the season of Lent and the season of Triduum gave Glory to God I say Alleluia. To the staff of the parish and the school: Alleluia. To the Music ministry: Alleluia. To the Liturgical Ministry – the servers, the lectors, the people of hospitality, the extraordinary ministers of communion: Alleluia. To the Logistics Ministry – the Sacristans, the Altar Servers Coordinator and the Environment Ministry: Alleluia. To each parishioner and visitor who crossed the threshold: Alleluia.

God has given us so much and continues to do so. Please know of my sense of Awe that God gives me when I think of the people of the Community of St. John Brebeuf.

Happy Easter & Alleluia!

LET US PRAY FOR OUR SICK AND HOMEBOUND: Therefore...pray for one another, so that you may be healed, (James 5:15)
