KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS #1107

On March 29, the 1.8 million members of the Knights of Columbus marked the 129th Anniversary of the granting of a charter to the Order by the State of Connecticut. In 1882, Venerable Fr. Michael McGivney and a small group of Catholic men founded a fraternal organization designed to provide assistance for widows and orphans of members. All practical Catholic men are invited to help Winnipeg (St. John Brebeuf) Council #1107 celebrate Founder's Day by calling Brother Bob Girouard, membership director at 488-2968 and ask to join the Order.

Please support the Sobey's Gift Card Fundraiser. $25 and $50 Sobey's Gift Cards available after weekend Masses & Parish Office. Details at main entrance.

FROM ARCHBISHOP WEISGERBER

The collection for Good Friday is an ordered collection throughout the world. This collection supports the Church in the Holy Land. I'm sure we are all aware of the difficulties facing individual Christians and the Church as a whole in the land of the Church's birth. It is vital that we try to be generous in helping our "Mother Church".

The Custody of the Holy Land continues in its path for the protection and preservation of the Holy Places in Jesus' land, keeping liturgy alive in places of worship, caring for pilgrims, enhancing apostolic works and supporting the Christian Community. Some Pilgrim-focused projects include Mount Tabor - Sanctuary of the Transfiguration: Restoration of the Shrine of the Transfiguration at Mount Tabor
Gethsemane - Final phase of the recreation of the Kidron Valley, for the reception of His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI
