The Ministry of Hospitality: Ushers/Greeters

The Ministry of Hospitality creates an inviting atmosphere as parishioners and visitors enter through the doors of St. John Brebeuf Parish by welcoming and greeting. Members of the Hospitality Ministry are following in the image of Jesus by exhibiting kindness, care and love to all people.

Greeters can be found at each mass by various entrances. If parishioners or visitors have any questions, Greeters are able to answer them or direct their questions to the appropriate individual who can.

Ushers sometimes get a bad rap! They are responsible for maintaining order during church services.. They ensure everyone gets a bulletin and finds a seat. They also collect the offerings and maintain decorum.

It is a wonderful way to serve God and the parish together!

If anyone is interested in organizing this ministry, as a leader, or just want to participate in it, please let us know!
