Farewell

On behalf of the parish, we extend our sincere appreciation to Fr. Wayne for his dedicated 6 ½ years of ministry at SJB. Throughout his time with us, Fr. Wayne has provided invaluable spiritual care, guidance, and has become a cherished friend to many of us. As he embarks on a new chapter of his ministry at St. Vital Parish, we offer our prayers for continued guidance through the Holy Spirit. We hope to formally acknowledge Fr. Wayne's time at SJB with a parish gathering sometime in the early new year.

To Fr. James, who has been with us for a short time, we ask that God may guide him as he takes on his new ministry in St. Rose du Luc. Thank you for your spiritual support during your stay at SJB!

Sincerely,

Grant Nazarko & Art Martin

From the Office:

We extend our gratitude to our Knights of Columbus for orchestrating the Santa Pancake Breakfast and the Keep Christ in Christmas Colouring Contest. The events were a resounding success, and the festive atmosphere was truly heartwarming as numerous parishioners came together to celebrate with joy.

A special commendation goes to Rick Mayhew and his staff, who meticulously revitalized the wreaths and garlands adorning our church during this Christmas season. Their efforts have added a touch of renewed splendor to our sacred space.
