CELEBRATING THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

When ready to celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession), the following steps are involved.

1. Beforehand

Examination of Conscience: Pray to the Holy Spirit for light and strength, examine your conscience in the light of the Scriptures and the Commandments since your last confession and become truly sorry for your sins.

2. Going to Confession

Welcome: The priest welcomes you, the penitent. It is helpful if you indicate the time of your last Confession and anything else that will help the priest hearing your confession.

Scripture: A short passage of Scripture may be read.

Confession: Confess your sins and listen to the advice of the priest.

Penance: The priest proposes a good action or prayer to help make up for sin and deepen virtue.

Prayer of Sorrow (Act of Contrition): Pray expressing personal sorrow and asking for forgiveness.

Absolution: The priest grants absolution in the name of God and the Church.

Praise of God and Dismissal: The priest invites you to praise God and dismisses you with the command to go in peace.

3. Afterwards

Spend some time in thanking God for forgiving us and restoring us to full life in Christ.
