JANUARY 19/20, 2013: SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

We often see divine and human activity as separate -- God has one turf and we have ours. God's only avenue into our world is divine intervention. Today's readings speak of a God who chooses not only involvement but even dependence upon people and their capacity to communicate with a caring creator and redeemer.

In the dismal setting of 500 B.C., Jerusalem is anything but a sign of the Lord's involvement. The city's royalty has been stripped away, it is forsaken and desolate. The prophet, Third Isaiah, destroys this depressing perception. Jerusalem's vindication will be as bright as the dawn; she will wear a new crown. The Lord will be as involved as a groom with his new bride.

Paul addresses the Corinthians' question about spiritual gifts. In addition to ministries and works, there are "gifts," charisms manifesting the Spirit in extraordinary ways. Exceptional faith, healing, tongues, and prophecy are but a few of these gifts. Paul identifies the Lord as sole source of these gifts and teaches they must be shared for the common good.

The wedding feast of Cana is a manifestation of divine glory. Mary appears symbolically; her function is to complete the call of the disciples. She is the catalyst for the sign that leads to the disciples' expression of faith.

God is present to us in the ministry of believing people. Just as people have profoundly influenced our lives for good, so we must share our gifts and talents in ministry to others.

Christian Outreach:

Immaculate Conception Drop-In Centre: Our work for the city's homeless never ends. Immaculate Conception Drop-In Centre urgently needs men's socks, as well as dark-coloured toques and mitts.

Our Place/Chez Nous: Thanks to all who donated spare change and bills during Advent and Christmas for the important work of Our Place/Chez Nous. This year's donations totaled almost $400.00.

Winnipeg Harvest: Until there is no longer a need for food banks in our community, we will continue to collect non-perishable food items for Winnipeg Harvest.
