JANUARY 26/27, 2013: THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

What most characterizes a true believer? Some would say acceptance of teachings and adherence to rules; others would argue for positive deeds that prove allegiance through actions. Today's readings indicate that both dimensions are critical: The believer listens to the Word and lives that Word each day.

Ezra, in the first reading, proclaims the Word to the people of Jerusalem; the year is 458 B.C. The people clearly experienced the power of God as the words reduced them to tears. In response to what they heard there was a decision to reform their lives.

In today's gospel, Luke defines Jesus' mission in terms of bringing Good News to the poor and announcing a year of favor from the Lord. Luke insists frequently that one must not only hear the Word but also act upon it. The seed in good soil "are the ones who, when they hear the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patient endurance" (Luke 8:15). Confirmation: Evening #6 for Candidates:
Sunday, January 27, 7pm, Parish Hall.

Help Needed: Each Sunday following the 9:30am Mass, many parishioners head downstairs to the Parish Hall for some coffee, donuts and community visiting time. Help is needed for preparation, set-up and clean-up for these weekly gatherings. Currently, this ministry is operating with a small number of volunteers. In order for it to continue, more individuals and families are needed to carry out this important part of the Mission of our parish community. Please see Grant Nazarko in the Parish Hall following 9:30am Mass to offer your help.

Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayer, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite them with us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the parish office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. That way we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.
