Epiphany Reflection...

The word epiphany means "showing forth" or "manifestation." We don't know much about the magi, the "wise men," to whom tradition has assigned names and stories as colourful as their costumes. But we do know two very important things about them. We know they came "from the east." They were not of the chosen people, but foreigners, Gentiles. And we know that they were "overjoyed" at where the star led them, that they acknowledged Jesus as king and God. From the first moments of his life, Jesus breaks through the boundaries that we human beings set up to separate ourselves from one another. When it comes to God's love, there are no outsiders.
