STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

July 18th— Virtues of the Disciple and Christian Steward—Trust

The Christian steward seeks to trust in God more and trust in themselves less. When we put our trust in at-risk things like our jobs, our possessions, or bank accounts, we are extremely vulnerable to anxiety and fear. Trusting explicitly in God is very freeing.

"I tell you not to worry about your life. Can worrying make you live longer?" Matthew 6:25,27

July 25th— Virtues of the Disciple and Christian Steward—Patience

Be patient with God. God's plan for each of us is revealed only in the unraveling of our lives. The Christian disciple seeks to understand others more than to be understood. Understanding leads to love, and one fruit of love is patience. Being a disciple and steward is not easy today. Being patient with ourselves means we get back up when we fall, believing and trusting in God's never ending compassion and forgiveness

SJB PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

Nearly three years ago, our Parish Pastoral Council began a process of discernment to plan for growth. Through this process, we have truly experienced the Holy Spirit and learned how we as a community can follow Jesus and imitate his way of life. On the weekend of June 26/27, a new mission statement was unveiled that captures this vision of the Stewardship way of living:

“Missioned to Stewardship, we are a community that lives, loves and serves in Christ.”

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to Monsignor Jamieson for leading our parish on this Stewardship journey, and Johnston Smith for his leadership.

-Brigitte Sandron, Co-Chair, SJB Pastoral Council
