June 9/10, 2018: 10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Genesis 3:8-15; Psalm 130; 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1; Mark 3:20-35

Jesus lived a life of unexpected freedom. The bounds of convention were no restraint to him. He cared neither for his reputation, nor his material well-being. His commitment to God's reign was total; even the bonds of family were nothing to him in light of the all-encompassing reality of God's Kingdom. Jesus arrived home and he brought with him a crowd so large that it overwhelmed the little town's food resources. His neighbours thought he had lost his mind, and religious experts from the big city thought he was possessed, not just by a demon, but by the very prince of the demons. When Jesus' family came to settle him down, he ignored them. Instead, he claimed the crowd, at least those willing to do the will of God, as his family.

This encounter with Jesus is abrasive to those of us with many worldly concerns and attachments. Could we afford to dynamite our reputation, or turn our backs on our closest friends and family, all for the sake of some ephemeral Reign of God? When it comes time for us to pay our taxes, look for employment, raise our children, and support our families, we rely very much on having a positive bank balance, a reputable network of references, and a stable home and community. To the extent that these features of modern life contribute to our well-being, we are willing to commit to the systems that ensure we get a slice. Jesus challenges us to not mistake our livelihood for eternal life. God frees us to love beyond our limited means.

The systems that provide for our well-being are at times benign, and at other times they feel restrictive. We don't approve of how every tax dollar gets spent, but what can we do? If we don't pay, we don't eat. Sometimes it feels like we're just along for the ride. Jesus used the image of a strong man, guarding his treasure, to refer to these systems that command our participation. They hijack our freedom in exchange for some bread. Christ is stronger than any worldly institution—he ties up the strong man and plunders us from his vault. Christ frees us to love beyond the limits of worldly structures, beyond our country and family, all the way to eternity.

~Tom Bailey-Robertson, Pastoral Associate

Winnipeg Harvest:

Top 10 most wanted food items include:

Canned Fish or Poultry
Peanut Butter
Rice

Canned Fruit or Vegetables
Whole Grain/Wheat Pasta

Baby Food and Formula (Iron fortified)
Canned Stew, Chili and Brown Beans
Cereal

Canned Spaghetti Sauce or Tomatoes
Canned Soup

On average, 1,600 infants require emergency baby formula from Winnipeg Harvest each month. Despite the generous food donations by Manitobans, there is never enough baby/infant formula to meet the demand, and Winnipeg Harvest must spend over $200,000 per year on baby food and formula alone. Manitoba also has one of the worst child poverty rates, with the second highest rate of child food bank users in Canada with 42% of food bank recipients being children. Please help Harvest feed the hungry adults and children in our midst by sharing what you can every month.

MASS ETIQUETTE- 20 THINGS TO DO AND NOT DO IN MASS:

18. Do not leave early. We should stay until the end of the recessional hymn. While there are certainly exceptions to this guideline, most who leave early don't need to, and should wait. Source: www.aggiecatholicblog.org

Knights of Columbus #1107: Our Knights are selling Sobeys cards in $25, $50 or $100 denominations following weekend Masses. To donate your gift card to Winnipeg Harvest, indicate this when purchasing. A tax receipt will be issued. Gift cards can be used at Sobeys and Safeway stores! Each dollar donated allows Harvest to leverage $20 worth of food. 2018 to date: $5,150

Our Place/Chez Nous:

Our Place/Chez Nous is drop-in centre that serves our city's homeless, mentally ill and marginalized in the Main and Higgins area. The centre provides those in need with a time of respite and fellowship from life on the street, as well as clothing, footwear, toiletries and food. Current needs include:

- Dark coloured hoodies
- Men's Jeans
- Toilet Paper
- Non-perishable food items such as canned soups, stews, baked beans, Kraft dinner, tuna, etc.

Although the centre closes during the summer, donations are always accepted at the main church entrance.

 Visiting us today? Welcome! If you wish to join us, registration forms can be found on the main entrance bulletin boards or at www.sjbcommunity.ca. Please return completed form via offertory collection or forward to the Parish Office.

Summer Mass Schedule: (May 20-Sept. 9)
