June 13/14, 2015: 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time: Ezekiel 17:22-24; 2 Corinthians 5:6-10; Mark 4:26-34

A beautiful young woman at a banquet dinner got up from her table to join her friend across the room. As the young woman sat down, she noticed a young man sitting at the same table and asked her friend who the “cute” stranger was. Overhearing her, the young man looked up from his plate. When he saw who had asked about him, he immediately pulled out the chair beside him and stammered, “You can sit here, if you like.” My, what confidence! It wasn’t the most inspired pick up line, but it worked. The young lady sat down in the chair beside him and the rest, as they say, is history. Now they’ve been married for five years and have two children. Life can feel like it rushes from one fleeting memory to the next, but every once and a while, one of these tiny moments comes to stand out above the rest. Choices as seemingly inconsequential as changing seats at a dinner, unbeknownst to us at the time, can prove to be the kernel of a much greater adventure. God carefully cultivates our lives through these little moments, so we can bear a lasting harvest for the Kingdom of Heaven. Chance encounters, serendipitous mistakes, coincidences—through the eyes of faith, there is nothing accidental about them; such moments can reveal God’s tremendous and mysterious love at work in the world.

One danger is to mistake the sprout for the harvest. Growth unfolds gradually, in stages. Recognizing when God has planted a seed that will bear fruit takes forbearance. Examining every little moment as though it were a sign from God would be like a farmer who jumps in the combine at the first sight of a shoot poking through the soil—all that time reaping ruins the harvest. God’s slow action in our lives can bring about amazing growth, but it takes time. It’s only after the crop has matured that we can see which seeds took root and flourished. On the other hand, it’s no better to get stuck looking back at previous harvests with no eye to what God might be preparing for us tomorrow. God can wring fruit even from a tree others would write off as dead. “I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish” (Ezekiel 17:22-24). God gathers us together as a church, not to preserve or archive past accomplishments, but to celebrate the ongoing action of the Risen Lord in our midst. If God can create a family out of a lame pick up line, imagine what else might be possible. What seeds might God be cultivating in our lives that go unnoticed today? Even before we know what the harvest will look like, with faith we can be thankful already for the abundant growth God has in store for us.

~Tom Bailey-Robertson, Pastoral Associate

Development and Peace:

The world has heard, with deep concern, the news of the terrible earthquake, 7.8 on the Richter scale, that hit Nepal during the night of April 24 and again May 12. The epicenter of the quake was only 80 km from the capital, Katmandou, causing widespread destruction. Over 4,000 people have died and even more injured. The number of victims is expected to increase significantly in the following days. Nepal is one of the poorest countries in the world. Its infrastructure simply cannot withstand an earthquake of this magnitude. Development and Peace has been in constant communication with the Caritas Internationalis and has launched an appeal for donations to help in this humanitarian emergency. To make a donation, visit www.devp.org and click the Nepal Emergency banner, or call the emergency appeal line at 1-888-664-3387.

10. Canned Soup— lentil, pea, vegetable

Monetary donations are also gratefully accepted. Just one loonie allows Harvest to leverage $20 worth of food.
