June 1/2: The Solemnity of Corpus Christi

The Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

Have you ever seen two people sitting at the same table in a restaurant yet never speaking a word to each other? The social dimension seems totally absent, the meal becomes nothing more than satisfying the body's need for food and drink.

The readings for the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ urge us to see the Eucharistic meal as an experience of one another. The wheat and grapes embrace the entire planet as they become bread and wine; the bread and wine embrace all creation as they become the body and blood of Jesus.

The Genesis passage has Abram returning home from a successful battle. He meets Melchizedek, the priest-king of Salem; the two share a meal of bread and wine and so form a bond by which they commit themselves to mutual obligations.

Paul, in today's passage from the First Letter to the Corinthians, warns against situations where some hoard the food and drink while others go hungry. Paul reminds the Christian community that Christ's words were "Do this in remembrance of me" (verse 24). An authentic celebration of the Eucharist occurs when those participating truly put on Christ. This means mirroring the self-giving of Jesus in their daily lives. It is only by providing for the needs of all that Corinthians of old and Christians of today genuinely celebrate the Lord's Supper.

The gospel passage describes the multiplication of the loaves. Luke places this miracle immediately after Jesus' preaching about the kingdom of God, a kingdom where the needs of all are satisfied. Luke also makes it clear that this miracle has a eucharistic dimension. Christ follows the pattern found at the Last Supper and on the road to Emmaus: taking, blessing/thanking, breaking, and giving (Luke 9:16; 22:19; 24:30).

The Eucharist is not a private devotion separate from the rest of our lives. In eating and drinking we commit ourselves to serve the Christ who is manifested in the needs and problems of our brothers and sisters around the world. St. John Brebeuf Parish Weekly Offerings:
May 25/26: $3696

To the Parishioners of St. John Brebeuf,
 On Friday May 24, 2013, at St. Mary's Cathedral, Archbishop James Wiesgerber bestowed upon 3 other men, whom will be at some point continuing their journey towards priesthood, and myself the Sacrament of Holy Orders - the Diaconate. It was an amazing evening that captivated all the senses with the sight of all the priests and fellow deacons who joined in the celebration, the singing of the choir which made the evening spectacular, especially during the Litany of Saints, and the love of all the people who came to celebrate this very special event with me. I was truly overwhelmed at the sight of so many friends and family from the different parishes that have travelled with me these past 20 years. I felt the Holy Spirit working and completing a stage of life that has been a part of who I am.

As I stated to everyone in the invitation to this event, "In gratitude to the Lord of the Harvest and with a deep sense of faith and thanksgiving for your prayers and support" I wish to take this opportunity to say thank you for your prayers and support. Even if you were not in attendance for the ordination, I felt them during the evening.

I ask all of you to continue to hold Holly and me in your prayers as we begin this new part of our lives. Our faith community is very important to us. Although I do not know where His Grace will assign me, I will always hold St. John Brebeuf Parish close in my thoughts and prayers.

In Humble service to you all,
 Rev. Mr. Michael Thibert (Mike)
