From Archbishop Gagnon:

Statement from Archbishop Richard Gagnon on the Kamloops Residential School

On behalf of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg, I would like to express our deepest sorrow over the discovery of the unmarked graves of over 200 children at the Kamloops Residential School in British Columbia. This is a truly shocking event that touches the hearts of all of us but in a particular way, the people of the Kamloops Tk'emlups to Secwépemc First Nation and indeed First Nations People everywhere.

The trauma, sadness and on-going suffering experienced by many people, makes it very important that the truth about the Residential Schools be brought to the fore. Throughout the country, this recent discovery of the graves has ignited even more suffering and has reopened the wounds of many people.

The Catholic community of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg pledge their prayers and support for First Nations People throughout Canada, and we pray particularly for the children who have died at the Kamloops Residential Schools, other Residential Schools, and for their families who have long sought answers about what has happened to their children. We pledge to continue to walk the path of reconciliation and establish relationships built on Peace, Justice and Love.

Archbishop Richard Gagnon
Archbishop of Winnipeg

June 5/6, 2021: Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Press Release:

The Sisters of the Order of St. Benedict came from Duluth, Minnesota to Manitoba in the early 1900's and were founded in 1912 for the purpose of "education and Christian charity". For these 109 years they have endeavored to offer education in cities and towns across the Prairies and to build, administer and serve in hospitals in rural Manitoba. In 1970 they expanded their ministry to spirituality programs and retreats through their Retreat & Conference Centre located at 225 Masters Avenue in West Saint Paul.

As a community of only 13 remaining members, they have made the difficult decision to pass on the charism of education, community wellness and spirituality. The Sisters are pleased to announce that SERDC, the South East Resource Development Council which serves 8 of the First Nations communities in Manitoba will become the new owners and will continue providing quality healthcare out of their new Wellness Centre. They have rented the Retreat Centre for 5 months now and they are very excited about their project as a work of reconciliation.

The entire Monastery, Retreat Centre and Seniors' Residence as well as land will be sold and the Sisters will continue to live in one wing until a new site and monastic home more consistent with its community's size can be developed.

The Sisters would like to thank everyone that has been involved in supporting its charism over the years from our valued employees, residents, and advisors who in many cases have become like family. You certainly will be missed, and we wish you continued health and prosperity in the future. We also wish our new friends at SERDC much success in their future endeavors.

Through St. Benedict's Foundation Inc., the Sisters will continue their legacy of care in the Province of Manitoba.
