Funeral Ministry:

One of the greatest ministries that Saint John Brebeuf is called to witness to is the welcoming of people who have had a death in their family. We are trying to establish a group of good hearted people who will welcome people who come to our parish during the emotional and stressful time of the death of a loved one or friend.

For all funeral Masses, our Funeral Ministry prepares the church, serves as hospitality ministers for the family and arriving guests, and serves as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion when needed. This ministry is on an on-call basis. Most funerals are celebrated at Saint John Brebeuf Church on weekdays at 10:30 am.

Funeral Ministry Qualifications:

All are welcome who have a love for ministering in hospitality to others.

Upcoming Training Sessions:

Training provided when new volunteers express interest. To sign up, please contact Tom in the Parish Office: 204-488-4467 (Ext. 217)

May 28/29, 2016: Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

The Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi): Genesis 14:18-20; Psalm 110; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26; Luke 9:11-17

Have you ever seen two people sitting at the same table in a restaurant yet never speaking a word to each other? The social dimension seems totally absent, the meal becomes nothing more than satisfying the body's need for food and drink.

The readings for the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ urge us to see the Eucharistic meal as an experience of one another. The wheat and grapes embrace the entire planet as they become bread and wine; the bread and wine embrace all creation as they become the body and blood of Jesus.

The Genesis passage has Abram returning home from a successful battle. He meets Melchizedek, the priest-king of Salem; the two share a meal of bread and wine and so form a bond by which they commit themselves to mutual obligations.

Paul, in today's passage from the First Letter to the Corinthians, warns against situations where some hoard the food and drink while others go hungry. Paul reminds the Christian community that Christ's words were "Do this in remembrance of me" (verse 24). An authentic celebration of the Eucharist occurs when those participating truly put on Christ. This means mirroring the self-giving of Jesus in their daily lives. It is only by providing for the needs of all that Corinthians of old and Christians of today genuinely celebrate the Lord's Supper.

The gospel passage describes the multiplication of the loaves. Luke places this miracle immediately after Jesus' preaching about the kingdom of God, a kingdom where the needs of all are satisfied. Luke also makes it clear that this miracle has a eucharistic dimension. Christ follows the pattern found at the Last Supper and on the road to Emmaus: taking, blessing/thanking, breaking, and giving (Luke 9:16; 22:19; 24:30).

The Eucharist is not a private devotion separate from the rest of our lives. In eating and drinking we commit ourselves to serve the Christ who is manifested in the needs and problems of our brothers and sisters around the world.
