From Father Wayne:

We are in a disturbing phase of the pandemic these days. A lot of people are starting to feel depressed. I think it's important for us to be attentive to the signs of it in ourselves and the people around us. Do our thoughts tend to run in a dark direction? Maybe all we need is a walk, a break, or a chat. Choose to be happy if possible. Sometimes what's needed is beyond what we can do for ourselves. Then we rely on the strength of others, and other kinds of help we know are there for us in the community. Ask God for help, and other people for help when the burden gets heavy. Depression makes our minds and bodies feel bad. Let's start the journey to joy together.

“And remember, I am with you always,
to the end of the age.” Matthew 28:20

Let us Pray for our sick, homebound and those who need our prayers:

Therefore...pray for one another, so that you may be healed (James 5:15)

Suspension of Faith Gatherings:

As announced on May 7 by the Provincial Government, all Faith Gatherings, including in-person Masses, are suspended. The celebrations of weddings, funerals and baptisms are permitted, with a maximum of ten (10) attendees. The restrictions will be in place until at least May 30, 2021.

The Parish Office remains closed to the public. All messages are returned as soon as possible.

From Archbishop Gagnon:

The current general dispensation from Sunday Mass concludes July 4, 2021.

Acts of the Synod:

One of the last major tasks of our formal Synod is the publication of the Acts of the Synod, including the 42 recommended Proposals for pastoral implementation, along with the decrees, pastoral letters, lists of delegates and other important documents which were issued during the formal synod process. As such the Acts of the Synod is an important historical account of our first Synod and an essential document as we move forward in implementing the Synod Proposals on the archdiocesan and parish levels.

Throughout the process, the Solemnity of Pentecost was the key touchstone for our Synod. Many important moments were centred on Pentecost, including its formal commencement and conclusion, and his acceptance, as Archbishop, of the 42 Proposals. On May 23, Pentecost Sunday, Archbishop Gagnon formally published the Acts of the Synod. All parishes will receive a copy of the bound Acts, and the Acts will also be published in a PDF format on our archdiocesan website. This will enable parish groups, including parish pastoral councils, access to the document for reference and study.

We give thanks to God for the good work accomplished by all during our first Archdiocesan Synod and pray that the Holy Spirit of Pentecost will continue to guide us as we implement in the pastoral life of our Archdiocese the 42 proposals.
