OCTOBER 13/14, 2012: TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom is often regarded as a personal attribute, something that people honor in others. Today's readings understand wisdom as a gift that must benefit the community. Expertise is centrifugal, moving from one person out to the entire population.

The Book of Wisdom chooses the wise and benevolent king as the model of human perfection. This ruler prefers wisdom to wealth, health, beauty, and even kingship itself. The ideal leader employs wisdom for the common good.

The responsorial psalm is a meditation on the value of human life. In verse twelve, the psalmist prays for wisdom of heart -- the ability to live in balanced relationship with God and others. Wisdom means that the community experiences God's gracious presence. Wisdom also implies that God acknowledges human work by giving it fullness and meaning.

Mark depicts a Jesus who is recognized for his wisdom. Jesus guides the man who wishes to gain eternal life. Wisdom requires that one first look to the common good. The man questioning Jesus has already achieved this level by keeping the commandments. Wisdom's second demand is much more challenging, giving up everything that distracts him from following Jesus. To sell one's possessions and give to the poor is a freeing experience that results in great service to the community.

Wisdom is required in all real life situations. Parents become wise in experience and use that grace to guide their children. Teachers share knowledge with their students, but even more, they share wisdom. The truly wise see their expertise not as an honor to be recognized, but as a gift to be shared.

By sharing the gift of faith we can bring hope and love to those who need it most.

Christian Outreach: Winnipeg Harvest has issued an urgent plea for food donations. To mark the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the council opening (Oct. 11, 1962) the Archdiocesan community is invited to gather and celebrate our journey together over the last half century. The event includes:

Learn about what goes into a Christian funeral, and get advice on advance medical directives and estate matters. Making end-of-life decisions ahead of time will save your family from feelings of confusion and uncertainty during the most difficult of times. Live with peace of mind knowing your affairs are in order.

What is the Church?

The Church is the people of God. The church is the church building, the house of the people of God. We have called the church the house of God. It has become that, because it is the place which has been made sacred through Eucharist worship. The work of the people, LITURGY, sanctifies the space as it makes Christ present through the word, through the eucharist, through the ministers, and through the Body of Christ assembled. The Church is a who, not a what.
