From Archbishop Gagnon:

We are all aware that the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic continue. In light of this: the dispensation from the Sunday obligation to attend Mass is granted to the faithful through January 1, 2021. Obviously this could change depending on circumstances.

National Collections:

There are a number of national collections that continue despite the current difficulties due to COVID-19. Because churches were closed during Lent and Easter, collections for Development and Peace and the Good Friday Pontifical Holy Land Collection were not taken, and have been rescheduled to the fall. Those who wish to donate can use designated offertory envelopes from your packet, or plain envelopes marked with the collection(s) and your contact information. These can be dropped into the offertory collection when you can, or forwarded to the Parish Office.

Pontifical Holy Land Collection (September 13): Pope Francis has asked that the faithful continue to support this collection which normally is taken up on Good Friday. The Christian presence in the Holy Land goes back to the New Testament times but has been undergoing great difficulty for decades and many people have left due to persecution, discrimination and financial hardship.

Needs of the Church in Canada (September 27): This national collection is designated to assist the poorer dioceses in Canada in the north. These local churches have small populations and huge territories. They are not able to survive on their own without the help of Catholic Missions in Canada and through the Needs of the Church in Canada collection.

The Pope's Pastoral Works (October 4): This collection, commonly called Peter's Pence, goes towards the Pope's outreach throughout the world for natural disasters, humanitarian crisis and assistance to the poorest of the poor.

World Mission Sunday (October 18): This national collection covers the missionary work of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, the Society of Peter the Apostle, the Holy Childhood Association, and Missionary Union of Clergy and Religious. This collection goes to the needs of the poorest dioceses in the world such as: formation of catechists, vocations, health care, support of churches and parish facilities where there is a lack, transport of pastoral workers, etc. The theme for this year is: "Here I am, send me".

Development and Peace (November 29): In normal times the Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace takes up a Share Lent Collection for its work in the developing world assisting local projects and works related to justice among the oppressed. Canadians have been very supportive of this work of the Church and are encouraged to continue to do so. This year's theme is Recovering Together.
