August 31/September 1: 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, September 1, 2013

Mother Teresa's Etiquette

As we near the 16th anniversary of the death of Blessed Teresa of Calcutta on September 5th, and having just marked her 103rd birthday on August 26, let the words of "The Paradoxical Commandments," often attributed to her, ring in our ears and in our communities this week. When Mother Teresa first heard these words written by Dr. Kent M. Keith, she was moved to put them up on the wall of one of her children's homes in Calcutta. They are powerful guidelines for finding personal meaning in the face of adversity and they transcend all creeds and cultures. More than anything, Dr. Keith's "creed" describes so well Blessed Teresa's way of dealing with so many people during her life time. She understood well the table talk and etiquette of Luke and of Jesus.

"People are often unreasonable, irrational, and self-centered.

Forgive them anyway.

"If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives.

Be kind anyway.

"If you are successful, you will win some unfaithful friends and some genuine enemies.

Succeed anyway.

"If you are honest and sincere people may deceive you.

Be honest and sincere anyway.

"What you spend years creating, others could destroy overnight.

Create anyway.

"If you find serenity and happiness, some may be jealous.

Be happy anyway.

"The good you do today, will often be forgotten.

Do good anyway.

"Give the best you have, and it will never be enough.

Give your best anyway.

"In the final analysis, it is between you and God. It was never between you and them anyway."
