A Message from Archbishop Weisgerber:

There's only a short time left before the Government's matching program for east Africa drought relief ends on Sept. 16! Your gift to Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace will be matched dollar-for-dollar by the Canadian Government. One great way to make a donation and reflect on the needs of hungry people in east Africa, is by eating a ration meal—a meal similar to what people eat in refugee camps—then donating the money saved. Find more information and recipes at the Canadian Foodgrains Bank website at www.foodgrainsbank.ca.

Serra Club: Serra Clubs are praying for vocations around the world on Sept. 8, 2011 (our Blessed Mother's birthday). In Winnipeg, Serra members will be celebrating this event with Mass, 9:15 am, Blessed John XXIII, followed by a Holy Hour. All are welcome.

Interested in joining Development and Peace? Learn more by attending the Archdiocesan Development and Peace Meeting, Tues., Sept. 6, 7:00 pm in the St. Marie Room, St. John Brebeuf Parish.

The New Translation – 'The Word of the Lord'

At the end of the readings and the Gospel at Mass, we are used to hearing 'This is the Word of the Lord'; 'This is the Gospel of the Lord'. In the new translation, the words 'This is' are now left out and we will hear 'The Word of the Lord' and 'The Gospel of the Lord'. One of the reasons is that the Latin does not include 'This is'. But there is more to it than that. If the priest or deacon lifts the book and says 'This is', it can suggest that he is talking about the book itself. In fact, he is talking about the Word of God - which is alive and active. The words at the end of the readings are announcing a great event. They are telling us that God has spoken; that Christ is present. We respond 'Thanks be to God', or 'Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ' which is our acknowledgement that what we have heard is, indeed, the Word of God.
