FROM SORROW TO JOY!

In recent conversations with the leaders at Anishnabeg Outreach I discovered that it was relationships that matter most. Amidst the many ways in which we could move forward together their greatest desire was simply that the Bishop from the Diocese come and visit them. Last Monday there was an opportunity for Bishop Crosby to do just that. After he toured the Medicine Garden, learned about their extensive outreach to Indigenous peoples, and listened deeply to their personal stories and hopes for the future, there was a tangible sense of peace and joy. Even though this was just the beginning, we all left with smiles on our faces because the Bishop was invited and responded to a call to encounter and listen to our Indigenous brothers and sisters. May the healing continue and bring joy to all of our hearts because truth and reconciliation is unfolding one step at a time.

NOVEMBER REMEMBRANCE

During the month of November we pray for the souls of our beloved dead. Everyone is invited to inscribe the names of their loved ones on the a sheet of paper and place it in our Book of Remembrance. The book is located at the front of the Church, in front of the Blessed Virgin Altar.

YOUR SUNDAY CHUCKLE!

A businessman ordered flowers to be sent to the opening of his friend's new branch office. When the businessman got there, he was shocked to see the flowers with the inscription. "Rest In Peace." He was so outraged that he stopped at the florist to complain.

"It could be worse," the florist said, "Just think, today someone was buried beneath a floral arrangement with the inscription. 'Congratulations on Your New Location!' "

REMEMBRANCE DAY
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11TH

On this day, Canadians pause in silence to remember those who died in war and to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world. We pray for peace and consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
