CR CORNER

(A weekly reflection from one or all of the Resurrectionists here at St. Mary's)

Jesus Builds Relationships

In Mark's Gospel this Sunday Jesus goes on a journey through Galilee with the Apostles and teaches them about the importance of putting service ahead of any desire for status. In so doing he reveals even more about how God desires to be in relationship with us. Setting out on a journey in a spirit of humble service remains an essential part of what it means to be in relationship. Here at St Mary's Fr. Joseph, Fr. Dan, and myself have already noticed so many fine examples of humble service in the image of Jesus. We are also committed to minister as Jesus did and committed to building on the great legacy of humble service in our parish. Last Sunday's second reading from St. James invites us to put our faith into practice. May Jesus grace us all with the courage to remove our outer garment, wrap a towel around ourselves and humbly wash each other's feet.

Yours in Christ,
Fathers Toby, Dan, and Joseph

A strong presence at the Life Chain this year might send a message that many, not just a few, are supporters of life. Table display with beautiful Christmas cards, T-Shirts for sale and more.

SCREENING - "FATAL FLAWS"

Friday, October 5th at 7 pm. "Are laws allowing euthanasia and assisted suicide leading society down a dangerous path?" The Kitchener Knights of Columbus is sponsoring the 80-minute film, "Fatal Flaws", asking one of the most fundamental philosophical questions of our time: Should we be giving doctors the right in law to end the life of others by euthanasia or assisted suicide? The movie is a must see, regardless of one's personal views about medical assisted death. Admission is free, but there will be a free will offering for people who want to donate to the Euthanasia Prevention Coalition. Alex Schadenberg the Executive Director of the EPC will be available to answer your questions. This presentation is about a new cultural philosophy that may affect you at the most vulnerable time of your life.
