Dear Parishioners of Most Precious Blood Parish,

Priest Pension Fund Update

To all those who contributed to this years Clergy Pension Fund Collection, $3,170.00 was collected and sent to the Diocese of London. This has been the highest amount collected so far! On behalf of all the retired clergy and those hoping to make it to retirement, Thank you!

It has been a wonderful summer with great attendance at all the weekend masses and for the first time in many years the Sunday collections has remained constant throughout the summer months. Because of this and because of the parishioners who can support our Building Fund with their monthly debt reduction envelope, we have been blessed to make another payment of $25,000.00 off our debt!

Present debt stands at $72,921.57 - $25,000.00 = Total Loan Balance of $47,921.57
Our Finance Committee was hoping to have the debt paid by the end of 2017. However, I believe we can pay it off sooner! Together we can do it!

Do you know someone interested in becoming a member of the Roman Catholic Church?

Preparations are now being made for the next RCIA (Rite of Christians Initiation of Adults) 2015-2016.

For more information, please contact myself, Father Greg, at my office 519-948-4133.

Father Greg

A.W.E. CONFERENCE/RETREAT

Last week I attended the Authentic Witness and Evangelization Conference/Retreat in London. As a group we focused on sharing the Good News with others, we heard more about the upcoming generations and how to minister to them, we visited the Catholic Christian Leadership camp and had a full day of prayer, reconciliation and adoration. The visit to the camp was awesome! We met with the teens, then had a gathering with the Bishop. After the gathering, we celebrated mass with the teens and the Bishop. It was so powerful of a visit. We ate together, sang together, and heard some amazing stories from the young people. I have walked away from this experience refreshed, motivated and on-fire. I have no idea what this year will look like, I just know it's gonna be great.
