Jesus' words in today's Gospel ring true in our very day. He says to the crowd: "Take care. Be on guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." How might we grow in awareness or greater consciousness of where and what God is asking of us? Perhaps a practice of daily discernment at the end of the day might be of some assistance. You will be amazed if you do this on a regular basis that your relationships to God, self and others will move you to ongoing conversion. Below is a brief Awareness Process that might help you for end-of-the-day discernment:

1. Ask God to help you see the past day through God's eyes and ask for enlightenment
2. Recall the key events of the day: what were the high points? Low points? What was my response in each case?
3. Recall your prayer from the morning: how might it relate to the day's events?
4. What might God be saying to me from the gifts/events of today?
5. Express gratitude for the gifts you have received, or sorrow for a lack of response.
6. Where do I sense God is calling me from here?
7. Is there any grace that I feel God is inviting me to? i.e. surrender to God's will, asking for forgiveness, peace of mind and heart and spirit, charity, to unconditional love, etc...

Bible Camp Theme Song by Matt Maher

Surfin’ the Wave... of Faith Bible Camp Week

This past week of bible camp was amazing. There were 45 children ages 6-11 that grew in their faith, made new friends, created crafts, played lots of games and just had a great time! These children were very blessed to have 30 leaders, mainly teenagers, who shared their faith and their energy with them each and every day of the camp from 8:30am until 4pm. On Thursday we headed to the Playdium for some 5-pin bowling fun, and then went to the park for a picnic lunch and then Riverside Pool for water fun. On Friday we invited the families for a bbq, a family craft, songs, and a prayer service to conclude the week. This week we saw so much growth and friendship develop. I feel so blessed to have been a part of such an amazing group. Hopefully we will have pictures up and our lip dub ready for the parish to see!

Teen Leadership Gathering

If you are living with a teenager or know a teenager who needs community service hours or who would like to get more involved in the church there is an informal gathering on Tuesday, August 6th at 2pm here in the church hall. We will be disc using a bunch of different areas that your teen could get involved in, which will help them with leadership, accumulate community service hours, making new friends and growing in faith all at the same time. Please contact Christine if you have any questions.

Family Movie Night

This Friday, August 9th we will be having an outdoor movie night for the family. Bring your lawn chairs, blankets, and money for munchies. If the weather is bad we will watch the movie in the church hall. The movie will be either Wreck it Ralph or Despicable Me... there is a much heated debate going on, on our Facebook page deciding which movie will it be. If you would like to be a part of the decision please visit & like the Most Precious Blood Parish Facebook page!
